THE CAPITAL.

Decisions of the Supreme Court and Court of Claims—Insurance Policies in Suicide Cases—The Warmoth-Louisiana Case—National Bank Dividends Declared by the Comptroller of the Currency—Requisitions on National Bank Stockholders—Reports of Collectors of Internal Revenue.

WASHINGTON, April 28, 1873.

Reports of Collectors of Internal Revenue.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue will soon issue a circular requiring Collectors of Internal Revenue to make two returns during the month of May, from the 1st to the 19th and from the 19th to the 31st, in order that the liabilities for the new bonds may be determined.

Supreme Court Decisions.

The Supreme Court to-day decided in the case of Ripley, Administratrix, against the Railway Passenger Insurance Company of Hartford, that there can be no recovery on a policy of insurance issued to deceased, as he was not traveling in a public or private conveyance at the time of his death, but had left the train at Dalton, Michigan, and was walking home when waylaid and beaten to death.

The Court also decided that the license tax imposed by the city of Mobile on the Southern Express Company was constitutional. The tax was resisted on the ground that, as the company was engaged in carrying business beyond the limits of the State, the tax was unconstitutional, as being in conflict with that provision of the Constitution which vests in Congress power to regulate commerce.

The Court also decided the case 149, Planters Bank of Tennessee vs. the Union Bank of Louisiana, error to the Circuit Court of Louisiana. This was a suit brought by the Planters Bank to recover the balance of an account from the Union Bank. The defense was that remittances made by the Planters Bank and collections made for it by the Union Bank were in Confederate money at a time when New Orleans (where the latter bank is located) was occupied by Confederate forces, and that subsequently the balance due the Planters Bank had been paid over to the military authorities of the United States by order of Gen. Banks. The Court held this to be no defence, and that a tender of Confederate money, when a demand for payment was made, such money being then of no value, did not extinguish the debt. This Court affirmed that judgment, holding that Gen. Banks had no authority to order a debt of the Planters Bank to be paid over to the military authorities, and that obedience to that order did not exonerate the Union Bank. Justice Strong delivered the opinion Justice Bradley dissented, holding that Congress, having interfered to protect General Banks and other officers under similar circumstances from responsibility from illegal commands enforced by the military power, the Government should respond to the injured parties.

The Court adjourned to Thursday, when it is expected it will adjourn for the term.

Court of Claims Decisions.

The Court of Claims to-day rendered judgment for $13,595 in favor of Eugene Dickleman, a subject of Prussia, for loss sustained by the detention of the Prussian ship Essex at New Orleans under an order of General Butler on suspicion of containing contraband goods. The Court held the United States liable under the 13th article of the treaty of 1799 with Prussia, which requires damages for such detentions to be paid by either nation when a belligerent exercises belligerent privileges. Chief Justice Drake dissented, mainly on the ground that martial law was supreme at that time in New Orleans, and that the vessel was brought there with the knowledge of the risks incurred in coming in conflict with the will of the military commander. This claim was referred to the Court by a special act of Congress.

Judgment was rendered for $18,090 in favor of Andrew J. Gill for 536 tons of hay used by the army in Colorado in 1864 and 1865.

The Court adjourned till next Monday, the Chief Justice announcing that the remaining cotton cases on the docket would then be proceeded with until finished, after which Court would adjourn until the third Monday of October.

Atlantic National Bank.

The Atlantic National Bank was examined in February and October, 1872. The reports of the examiner show that the capital in the bank was seriously impaired. The Comptroller of the Currency directed that no further dividends should be declared, and accordingly no dividends were made during the year 1872. Bad debts to the amount of $32,400 were charged off during the same year. The defalcation is supposed to have occurred from the use of special deposits and collaterals by the cashier.

National Bank Dividends.

The Comptroller of the Currency has declared a dividend of thirty-two per cent. in favor of the creditors of the Unadillo National Bank, of Unadillo, N. Y., and also a dividend of twenty-five per cent. in favor of the creditors of the Scandinavian National Bank of Chicago, payable as soon as a schedule of creditors can be prepared and examined.

Requisitions on National Bank Stockholders.

The Comptroller has directed the receiver of the Eighth National Bank of New York to make a requisition of 54 per cent. upon the shareholders of that bank to supply the deficiency required for the full payment of the creditors. A small requisition is also to be made upon the shareholders of the Farmers and Citizens National Bank of Brooklyn for the same purpose.

Insurance Policies in Suicidal Cases.

The Supreme Court this afternoon decided the case of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York vs. Terry, a case of suicide by poison. The Court holds that facts show the reason of the deceased to have been so impaired that his suicide was not his voluntary, intelligent act. On these facts it is held that the company is liable, although the policy provided against suicide.

The Warmoth-Louisiana Case.

It is thought this afternoon by leading members of the Supreme Court Bar that the motion submitted to the Court in conference last Saturday, for the allowing of the appeal in the Warmoth-Louisiana case, which was refused by Judge Durrell in the court below, will go over until the next term.

Hampton, the Alleged Pittsburgh Bond Robber, in Court, Discharged and Rearrested—Attempt to Serve a Second Writ of Habeas Corpus—The Atlantic National Bank Defalcation—Meeting of Depositors—The Fechter-Sherman Suit—Disturbance Among Dock Laborers—Indian Commissioners in Session—Excessive Fees Charged by City Officials.

NEW YORK, April 28, 1873.

The Alleged Pittsburgh Bond Robber in Court.

Charles G. Hampton, the alleged Pittsburgh bond robber, was brought up this morning in the Court of Oyer and Terminer before Judge Brady, on a writ of habeas corpus. The District Attorney consented that the prisoner be discharged, which being done, the Sheriff's officers rearrested him on a requisition from the Governor and he left the court room bound for Pittsburgh.

On leaving the Court, Hampton was placed in a coach, accompanied by two officers, to be driven to Colonel Whitley's office. This coach had no sooner departed than another arrived, and the occupants, learning that Hampton had been driven off, gave chase, but at the latest reports had not overhauled him. It is supposed the occupants of the last coach had another writ of habeas corpus to keep Hampton in the city. Later.—The attempt to serve a second writ of habeas corpus on the Deputy Sheriffs having the alleged bond robber, Hampton, in custody, failed, and Hampton was taken to Philadelphia this afternoon.

The Atlantic National Bank Defalcation.

There was a slight flurry in Wall street during the morning hours in consequence of the defalcation in the Atlantic National Bank, but prices were not much affected. The misfortunes of the bank are regarded as the consequence of imposing upon the cashier the duties that should have been discharged by the other officers. The President, Mr. Southworth, was formerly in the grocery trade, and the bankers and brokers say that if he was a failure as a grocer he is not likely to be a success as a financier.

Charles E Strong has been appointed receiver of the Atlantic National Bank. Taintor, the defaulting Cashier, was taken before United States Commissioner Osborne to-day, but not having counsel and not making application for release on bail, was returned to the Ludlow street jail.

"No further information" is the answer given all inquirers at the Atlantic National Bank, where Mr. Strong is endeavoring to disentangle the confused accounts. The greater number of depositors who called at the bank this morning appeared to have lost but small amounts, and none of those painful scenes occurred so often seen where large savings banks suspend. Taintor, the defaulting cashier, is married and respectably connected. His friends say his speculations were prompted by a desire to serve the bank, and that he erred through ambition, not dishonest intent.

Among the prominent sufferers by the Atlantic Bank defalcation is Roswell S. Burrows, a wealthy merchant of Albion, N. Y., who had $100,000 of the stock.

A large number of depositors of the bank held a meeting this afternoon, J. A. Fuller presiding, and a resolution was adopted for the appointment of a committee of five to cooperate with the receiver of the bank and to report to the depositors all obtainable information concerning the affairs of the institution. A number of speeches were made, in which much indignation was manifested against the defaulting cashier, Taintor. Severe criticisms were also passed on other officers of the bank, to whose lack of vigilance the accomplishment of the frauds was attributed. Opinions were expressed that Taintor still retained a large amount of money obtained by him; also that the frauds had not extended through years, as he asserted, but were matters of the last few days or weeks. The meeting adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman.

The Fechter-Sherman Suit.

A motion was made to-day on behalf of W. Watts Sherman, to vacate an attachment granted against his property in the suit by Mr. Fechter for $412,000 damages for alleged breach of contract. The motion was based principally upon the ground that Sherman was not a non-resident, that he was not living in London, as claimed, but was on a pleasure trip on the continent. The Court reserved its decision.

Indian Commissioners in Session.

The Commissioners of Indian Affairs resumed their session this morning. B. R. Cowan, Assistant Secretary of the Interior, assisted the members of the Commission. Bids for transportation were received, amounting to twenty-two in all. The bidders were chiefly from St. Louis, Chicago, Pittsburgh and Cheyenne. The quantity to be transported amounts to twenty-five millions pounds.

Excessive Fees.

A special committee of the Board of Assistant Aldermen to-day reported that the fees, emoluments and salaries of the City Chamberlain and County Treasurer are excessive and an outrage on the people, that the interest on city money should be added to the principal, and that the corporation counsel be instructed to recover and secure such interest to the city.

Important Decision.

The suit brought in the United States Court, by the Milwaukee National Bank of Wisconsin, against Arthur Hughes and others, to recover money paid by the bank on sight and time drafts, which had been issued by the defendents in the purchase of a cargo of wheat and discounted by the bank, was to-day decided by a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $24,685.

Disturbance Among Dock Laborers.

This afternoon a gang of sixty 'longshoremen refused to allow a gang of New York men to go to work on the steamer Pembroke at Jersey City, and at one time a riot was threatened, but the police appeared and prevented an outbreak.

The New Atlantic Cable.

The managers of the new Atlantic cable are dissatisfied with the Hog Island approach, and contemplate bringing the cable to Brooklyn by some other way.

THE CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Report of the Judiciary Committee Under Discussion.

A dispatch to the Telegraph, dated Philadelphia, April 28th, says:

On motion of Gen. Lilly, of Carbon, the Convention went into Committee of the Whole on the Judiciary report, Gen White, of Indiana, in the chair.

SECTION 1. The judiciary power of the Commonwealth shall be vested in the Supreme Court, in a Circuit Court, in Courts of Oyer and Terminer and general jail delivery, in a Court of Common Pleas, Orphans' Court and a Court of Quarter Sessions for each county, in Justices of the Peace, and such other courts, not of record, as the Legislature may determine, with civil jurisdiction not exceeding three hundred dollars, and with such criminal jurisdiction and powers as shall be conferred by law; and no courts of record other than those herein designated shall be established, was read.

Mr. Samuel A. Purviance, of Allegheny, opposed the section. He thought that no necessity for Circuit Courts in the Commonwealth existed, and moved to amend by striking out the words Circuit Courts.

Judge Woodward, of Philadelphia, offered the following substitute: That the judicial power of this Commonwealth shall be vested in a Supreme Court, in Circuit Courts, in Courts of Oyer and Terminer and general jail delivery, in Courts of Quarters Sessions, of the Peace, and in such other courts as the Legislature may from time to time establish.

Ruled to be not in order at the present time.

Mr. Meredith, President, suggested that the delegate from Allegheny, Mr. Purviance, withdraw his amendment, to allow Judge Woodward to offer his substitute, which was done, and Judge Woodward renewed his motion, and took the floor in its support. He did not agree with the gentleman from Allegheny (Mr. Purviance), who had renewed his amendment to strike out "Circuit Courts," as defined in his substitute, and set forth in the fourth section of his minority report.

Without reaching a vote the Committee rose, with leave to sit again in the afternoon, and the Convention took a recess until three o'clock.

—INFORMATION from Madison county, Illinois, has been received that a negro named George Burke, living on a farm of Henry Nair, about three miles west of Collinsville, and some ten miles from St. Louis, went home drunk on Saturday night, and with an axe chopped off the head and one arm of Maria Bowman, also colored, and threw her body into a ravine. The woman was living in Burke's family, and jealousy is said to have prompted the deed.

FRANCE.

The Elections.

PARIS, April 28.—The following are the final returns of the election in this city yesterday, to fill the vacant seat in the National Assembly: Barodet, 180,146; Remusat, 135,406; Stoffel, 27,058. The previous announcement that Remusat received the least number of votes was a clerical error. The elections in the departments of Correso, Jura and Marne were carried by the Republicans, and in Morbitian by the Catholic party.

Barodet's election to the Assembly will probably cause a change of the Ministry. M. Remusat, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Leon Say, Minister of Finance, and Jules Simon, Minister of Public Instruction, are expected to resign. Camaisau Perier, formerly Minister of the Interior, and M. Grevy, late President of the Assembly, are talked of as probable members of the new Cabinet.

PARIS, April 28 —Evening.—The total result of the voting in Paris and other parts of France yesterday to fill vacancies in the Assembly was the election of three Radicals, four Republicans and one Legitimist. All the journals except Radical organs express surprise at the vote in the department of the Seine. The Conservative papers say it is due to Thiers leaning to the Left, and the Republican journals attribute it to mistakes in the Assembly. The Bien Public looks upon Barodet's triumph as a serious event, but repudiates the idea that its party is discouraged. The monarchial press generally regard the election a terrible awakening for the Conservatives. Le Temps pronounces it a warning to the Government. Republicans who supported the Count De Remusat are embarrassed by his defeat. M. De Remusat has expressed a desire to resign the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, but President Thiers has induced him to remain in office.

Thiers Discouraged.

PARIS, April 28.—Evening.—Count de Remusat's electoral committee this afternoon visited President Thiers, who appeared to be discouraged. It is reported that when the President first heard the news of the Count's defeat he retired to his room and remained one hour alone.

There are fears that the Right in the Assembly will now insist on restricting and otherwise modifying universal suffrage. The Bonapartist journals declare that the conservative Republic is dead.

Panic on the Bourse.

LONDON, April 29—5:30 A. M.—Special dispatches to the London morning journals of today represent that the success of Barodet had created an immense impression in Paris. The city and provinces are agitated. A panic prevailed on the bourse yesterday, and patrols were required to maintain order in the suburbs during the afternoon and night. Reports of changes in the ministry are contradicted.

At a monster meeting of the Federalists, yesterday, violent speeches were made.

MADRID April 28.—A band of five hundred Carlists entered the town of Capellades, and demanded a contribution, but fled on the approach of National troops.

The Carlists Discouraged.

LONDON, April 29—3 A. M.—Reports are in circulation that the Carlists intend to withdraw from Spain and give up the struggle for the present.

—A special dispatch from Port Garry, Manitoba, says there has been fighting between the American troops and Blackfeet Indians, and a large number of Americans killed. It is feared this is the beginning of trouble in the Blackfeet country. The Indians of Fort Sully are those who crossed the line to the number of seven or eight thousand, and threaten settlements and Manitoba.

UNIONTOWN.

Fatal Accident to a Soldier of the Mexican War and the War of the Rebellion—Death of a Prominent Odd Fellow—No Court and the Jury Discharged—The Weather.

[Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

UNIONTOWN, April 28, 1873.

SNOW IN THE MOUNTAINS.

The weather keeps as cool as if winter was going to continue all summer. On Saturday there were from six to eight inches of snow in the mountains, and the breezes from that direction are very chilly.

NO COURT—JURY DISCHARGED.

Adjourned Court met to-day, but there was very little done. Hon. S. A. Gilmore, President Judge, is quite sick, and wholly unable to be on the bench. We hope that he may soon recover. The lawyers having continued all the cases that were down for trial, the jury was discharged, and looked as though they were very well pleased with the course things had unexpectedly taken.

Death of a Prominent Odd Fellow.

Mr. Wm. Barton, living half a mile above town, died after a very short illness on Friday last. He was an honored and respected member of the I. O. of O. F., and between eighty and ninety members of the order marched in procession after his remains. Mr. Barton will be sadly missed by the whole community.

Fatal Accident to Major Guiler.

Major Absalom Guiler, late jury commissioner of this county, met with a sad and fatal accident last Saturday evening. He was returning home from his son's store, at Upper Middletown, after dark, and discovering that his saddle was too loose, attempted to dismount, when his horse became frightened and threw him off, with his left foot sticking in the stirrup, and dragged him some four hundred yards along the National road or pike. His right leg was broken, and the bones protruded, the muscles of the leg were terribly torn and mangled, his head and face bruised, and internal injuries inflicted. Drs. Walker, Robinson, Sturgeon and Ewing amputated his leg last night, but he was so prostrated by loss of blood and his injuries, that he did not rally, and died this morning at 9 o'clock.

Major Guiler was all through the Mexican war as Sergeant of Co. H, Second Penna. Volunteers, and participated in the severe battles previous to, and at the capture of the City of Mexico. In 1861 he was elected Major of the celebrated Eighty-fifth Regiment Penna. Volunteers in the war of the rebellion, and served with honor until his health broke down, when he came home and engaged in farming. He was highly respected and honored by a large circle of acquaintances, and especially by the soldiers of his respective regiments. He leaves a widow and four children, and two grand children to mourn their sudden loss. "Q."

It appears that Mr. Linn was administrator of the estate of Wm. R. Oliver, and was ordered to pay over certain moneys of the estate in his possesion amonting to $3,200 to Mr. B. Rafferty, who succeeded Mr. L. as administrator. Mr. Linn disregarded the summons of the court, and was arrested for contempt, and ordered to pay over the money within ten days or take up lodgings in the Washington county jail. Mr. Linn contends that under the act of 1842 he cannot be committed for contempt in such a case, and cannot be legally imprisoned for debt.

The ceremonies opened with a High Mass, Father Hickey, celebrant, assisted by two Paulists. A number of choirs from different churches in the city occupied the organ loft, and the selections sung were from Mozart's Twelfth Mass. A sermon on the life and career of the founder of the order was delivered by Father Secular, in German, and by Father Wall in the English language. The exercises were concluded in the afternoon by Vespers, and the dedication of an oil portrait of St. Paul of the Cross.

DISTRIBUTION OF BIBLES.

Annual Meeting of the Young Men's Bible Society—The Reports of the Officers—A New Board for the Current Year.

Last evening the annual business meeting of the Young Men's Bible Society was held at the Young Men's Christian Association Rooms—the attendance being as large as usual at such gatherings, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather.

The meeting was called to order at half-past seven o'clock, by the President, Mr. David Robinson, and the exercises were preceded with prayer. Mr. R. C. Miller was then chosen Secretary pro tem., in the absence of the regular officer.

THE FINANCES.

The report of the Treasurer Mr. J. F. Loy was then read, showing the total receipts to have been $3303.73; of this amount the largest sums were from the agent D. Clark, $1661.50, and from Librarian Rev. Dr. McKinney, $904.04. The receipts were all exhausted in carrying on the work of the society. The largest amounts were to the agent for D. Clark, $508, to Penna. Bible Society, $2618.37 to Librarian, $100, and the remainder in small amounts. The Treasury had been replenished for the ensuing year by a donation of $1000 from the Brewer Fund.

THE WORK OF THE YEAR.

Prof. L. H. Eaton, Corresponding Secretary of the Society next presented his report, a very carefully prepared and interesting paper from which we learn, that although the work of the Society was pushed with vigor during the year, yet difficulties in the way of great success presented themselves in the sickness of the agent, Rev. D. Clark, who could only be on duty about half the time. Notwithstanding this fact however, there had been 7,061 families visited, 553 of whom were found without Bibles; of these 99 were supplied by sale and 54 by donation—the remainder refusing to take any. There were also 894 Bibles and Testaments donated during the year to Mission Sunday Schools, &c.

Since the last report two efficient members of the society—Messrs. J. N. Siemon and James Jones—had "gone from labor to reward," and appropriate reference was made to their demise and their excellencies.

The Secretary further reported that the field of operations of the society needed more workers, and that instead of but one agent several might very profitably be employed. There was encouragement in almost every instance heard from, and the work should receive even greater encouragement from the churches than had ever been the case heretofore.

The reports were received and filed, and Messrs. Eaton and Miller appointed to supervise their publication in pamphlet form. Mr. T. H. Patterson was appointed to audit the Treasurer's accounts.

The Committee appointed to select a Board of Managers for the ensuing year then made their report, which was approved, and a resolution passed calling a meeting of the new Board on Friday evening, for organization, after which the meeting adjourned.

LOCAL PREACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

Semi-Annual Meeting—Business—Sabbath Services.

We have in this city an organization known as the Local Preachers' Association,—made up of persons holding the position of Local Preacher in the M. E. Church. In this city and the immediate vicinity there are about a dozen such persons. They are engaged in business occupations during the week, and on the Sabbath preach at such points as are not able to support regular pastors. They are now chiefly valuable in the aid they give Rev. J. C. High, City Missionary, who very naturally has more preaching places than he can personally supply on the Sabbath. They also occasionally fill the city churches during the absence of regular pastors. About two years since, chiefly through the efforts of Rev. W. H. Kincaid, they formed an association, and now meet twice a year, usually on Saturday evening, for business purposes, and during Sabbath hold religious services.

On Saturday night last the business meeting commenced in the Butler street M. E. Church. The election of officers to serve for the ensuing six months, and arrangement of a programme of religious services, hereby each should have his work assigned him, formed the chief feature of the business meeting. On Sunday morning, Rev. Wm. Alcott preached a most excellent sermon, on the character and work of Paul. In the afternoon the Sunday School exercises were conducted by the Rev. D. T. Macfarlan, of New York, and Rev. J. F. Dravo, of Beaver, both of whom delivered capital addresses. The Sunday School of this church, under the Superintendency of Jno. G. Matthews, Esq., has attained to remarkable efficiency and a membership of eight hundred children. A love-feast and prayer meeting were held in the afternoon, and at night, Messrs. Dravo, Macfarlan and Dermit occupied the pulpit in the delivery of several stirring addresses on various religious topics. The attendance at all these services was overflowing.

POLICE PARAGRAPHS.

Brief Mention of Criminalities.

FRANK WALL has been sent to the Work-House for three months by Deputy Mayor Barker of the South Side for insulting ladies and gentlemen on the streets. The charge preferred against him was disorderly conduct.

GEORGE MITCHELL has made an information before Alderman Taylor charging David Brown with vending and selling lottery and policy tickets on Twelfth streets. Brown was arrested and held in $500 bail for a hearing at four o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

MR. THOMAS MALEY has made an information before Alderman Thomas, charging Patrick Donohue with an aggravated assault and battery. He alleges that he called on the defendant to settle an old bill, when he settled him with a pair of brass knuckles inflicting very serious and painful injuries upon him. Warrant issued.

A PENITENTIARY SONGSTRESS.

The Mysterious Robbery at Maginn's Explained—Annie Dugann, the Thief, Arrested—Her Boldness and Dexterity.

The robbery which occurred at the residence of Mr. Maginn, on Federal street, Allegheny, the other day, has been invested with somewhat additional interest by the arrest of the person who is charged with the offence. This individual is known to the police as Annie Dugann, but has a convenient number of names, among the favored of which are Mrs. Gordon, Mrs. Grouard, Miss Anderson, Miss Victoria, et al. In the efforts made for her arrest the whole circumstances attending the robbery were developed from which it appears that after "going through" Mr. Maginn's residence, she went along Church avenue and took a Pleasant Valley car. On North Diamond street she lost the pocket book she had stolen, and went, crying, to the Mayor's office to make known her loss. The Mayor, melted by her mournful tale, gave her a twenty-five cent stamp to pay her fare home to Pleasant Valley, and besides sent an officer with her to hunt the lost purse. The search, however, proved unavailing, and the woman next appears at Clendining's trunk store, where she succeeded in getting a trunk and three dollars in cash by relating her story, and agreeing not to take the trunk away until it was paid for. Being allowed this privilege she packed it full of goods and went away, returning in a short time with the money to pay for it, and directing it to be sent to her brother at Brady's Bend. These facts came to the knowledge of Chief Clark, and he proceeded to the express office, where, after a deal of trouble, he succeeded in securing the trunk, when opened, it was found to contain all goods—save the jewelry—stolen from Maginn's, and a lot of other valuables. Officers were then sent to the neighborhood of Brady's Bend, and yesterday arrested the woman at Carnes station in that neighborhood. All the jewelry was found with her except the watch, and she subsequently told where it could be had.

Last evening she was brought before Mayor Callow, and after a hearing was committed in default of $2,000 bail. She seemed to be indifferent, but as she has already served two years in the Penitentiary and is not yet twenty-three years of age, it is probable jail life has, for her, its charms.

CHASING A PICKPOCKET.

An Exciting Scene in Allegheny—A Pocketbook Stolen on a Pleasant Valley Car—A Lively Chase and Capture of a Thief.

Last evening about half-past five o'clock, the passengers in a Pleasant Valley car, that had reached North Diamond street, were treated to a lively little sensation, in which, hundreds of their fellow citizens on the streets subsequently shared. The car was pretty well filled with ladies and gentlemen returning home, and among them was Mr. Joseph Patterson, an old gentleman residing at No. 54 Montgomery avenue. Mr. Patterson had a pocket-book containing $75 in his pocket and he carefully covered that purse with his hand. Upon coming to the corner of North Diamond and Federal street he pulled the bell, and the car stopped. He rose to his feet and just then two men who had been sitting opposite jumped up, jerked the bell, and the car started on. The old gentleman by the jerk was thrown backward, and in righting himself, drew his hand out of his pocket, and one of the strangers hands instantly took his portmonnie, while both the men bolted through the doorway into the street. Mr. Patterson started in pursuit, giving the alarm and crying "stop thief," which encouraged an army of urchins and a score of swift-footed men to join in the exciting chase. The two pickpockets kept together down the Diamond and up Ohio street a short distance to an alley, when one of them dodged his pursuers. The other was kept in view, and was finally brought up on Cedar avenue. He was brought back to the lock-up, followed by a crowd of two or three hundred people. He gave his name as John Morton, and said he was from Toledo, while he denied the charge against him. Mr. Patterson, however clearly identified him as the one who had taken the pocketbook, although, when searched, only $44 and a pawn ticket were found in his possession. It is thought he either threw his booty away or gave it to his companion, who escaped, and under this impression the Mayor had him locked up for a hearing. He is quite young, not more than twenty-one years of age, but evidently is a bold and experienced operator, as is attested by the robbery for which he is under arrest.

THOSE RAILROAD BONDS.

A full Statement of the Case to Councils—All About the Negotiations—And the Final Transfer of the Bonds.

Among the chief items of interest in the proceedings of Select Council yesterday afternoon, was a statement made by Col. Phillips, in reference to, and the presentation of a voluminous history of the "lost railroad bonds" of the city of which we have recently heard so much. The gentleman in calling the attention of the Councils to the matter said that as there had been some inquiries made in reference to the negotiations of the bonds and as some people seemed to have forgotten the exact history of, the matter, he had secured papers from several gentlemen interested, who were cognizant of the facts, and whose explanations be hoped would forever settle the case. The documents in question were reports from the City Attorney Thos. S. Bigelow, Esq., and a letter from Judge Veech, who was connected with the case as legal adviser to the representatives of the city. These papers went into lengthy detail, in reviewing the subject, giving every information relating thereto, that the writers could obtain.

Mr. Phillips in introducing the matter made a verbal statement, in corroboration from his personal knowledge, of what had been written in the documents presented, and then asked that he be allowed to write a statement and have it printed in all the city papers, accompanied by the other papers. The request was complied with, and in a day or two the full history of the case will be laid before the public.

STATISTICS OF FIRES.

The Fire Marshal's Annual Report—Business in His Department During the Past Year.

Yesterday morning Fire Marshal Butler presented his annual report in the Court of Common Pleas, giving a detailed statement of his work for the past year, with recommendations, &c. The report says: During the year there occured 326 fires, the great majority being trivial. The value of property where fires took place amounted to $1,912,255.84 of which property to the amount of $899,611.36 had no insurance it upon whatever. The total amount of insurance was $1,012,644 48, and the total value of that portion which was destroyed was $520,298 18. On this loss, insurance was paid to the amount of $271,566 27, leaving a balance of $22,000 yet to be adjusted. The largest fire was that of Hartje, Wylie & Co., where the loss was over $90,000, and the insurance $55,000.

The Marshal compliments the management of the Fire Departments of the two cities, recommends the stationing of a fire engine at McKeesport, notes fifteen deaths and sixteen accidents from fire during the year, mentions visits to all the public buildings, and the making of such alterations as were needed for safety, such as changing doors to open outward, &c., calls attention to defects in this respect in many of our Public School buildings, makes mention of the fatalities from "non-explosive" fluids, &c., and closes with a general review.

The report will be printed in pamphlet form.

THE COURTS.

Yesterday's Proceedings.

DISTRICT COURT—JUDGE HAMPTON.

The case of Perry vs. Perry was concluded yesterday, so far as the testimony and the lawyers' addresses are concerned, and will be submitted to the jury this morning.

The case of the People's Plank Road Company vs. Philip Beckert was taken up and engaged the attention of the Court during the entire day. This is an appeal from the award of viewers for damages sustained by defendants in regard to property appropriated by plaintiffs.

Superseding all Others.

All the best builders and house carpenters now use, as the best balance of all, the Anderson Sash Balance, which is rapidly superseding all other balances for the purpose. It has been introduced in other cities, east and west, and hundreds of thousands are now in use. Its superiority is clearly manifest from the great demand which came from Chicago, after the fire there; when building operations were resumed thousands of the balances were used, and it was difficult to keep up the demand. So it has been everywhere wherever the Anderson has been introduced. Its great merits of simplicity and durability, and the fact that it can be applied to any kind of a window frame, make it popular, and have caused it to be ranked above all others.

TUESDAY, APRIL 29, 1873.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 117 @117¼.

HON. WILLIAM McCLELLAND, member of Congress from the Washington and Beaver District, has our thanks for valuable public documents.

THE Post joins with us in the view that the question of tariff or free trade, is one of interest. How, then, does it enjoy the attempt of the World to make it a partisan issue?

HAMPTON, the bond thief, was yesterday released in New York, on a writ of habeas corpus, and immediately re-arrested and forwarded here, on a requisition from the Governor.

HON. THOS. H. BAIRD PATTERSON, desires us to say that he is, or was, a Liberal Republican, and not a Democrat, as represented in the sketch we copied from the Philadelphia Press.

A FEATURE in the increase-of-salary bill, which passed Congress near the close of the session, is that which appropriates $125 to each Member and Senator for newspapers and stationary. This is in lieu of the franking privilege.

OUR AGENTS and readers in the rural districts can greatly serve the public good, at this time, by sending us a few lines on the condition and prospects of the crops, farm work, &c. We desire reliable information on these subjects, and shall be pleased to receive and print it. Communications should, however, be short and to the point.

IT IS noticeable, that the recent bank defalcations in New York, in the Ocean and Atlantic banks, involve institutions which for years have been under a cloud of suspicion. The circumstances, in both cases, point to an exceedingly loose system of management. It has come to be a question whether a single instance of culpable carelessness in bank management should not be followed by the instant dismissal of the offender.

WE ARE gratified to learn that our spring trade, notwithstanding the unseasonable weather and tight money market, is unusually active. More goods have been sold by our wholesale and jobbing merchants during the past few days than have probably ever been shipped from here in the same time. The revival of business is a growing fact, and is largely due to the increased zeal and energy displayed by our merchants in almost every department of trade, as is fully evidenced by a glance over the advertising columns of the GAZETTE.

THE charges against the "original thirteen" paid Commissioners to Vienna appear to be more serious than at first supposed. Mr. Van Buren has, it is alleged, failed to sign or seal the bond required of him by the State Department, and this after objecting very strenuously to giving a bond. The omission is regarded as not entirely accidental. While Mr. Van Buren is not charged with the sale of restaurant privileges, others of the Commission are, and so the entire list is under suspension. The whole affair is an outrage on the country, and deserves the severest punishment that can possibly be awarded.

THE colored people South have an organization, which, in some of its features, may be earnestly commended to the whites as a substitute for "unions." It provides for the distribution of laborers, so that where there is a deficiency at one point and a surplus at another, laborers are taken from the one and sent to the other, thus securing equalization. Strikes are discouraged, and provision is made for the care of sick members. Rightly carried out, such an arrangement will contribute to the regular employment of all, and at fair rates, as the demand for labor in this country is sure to compel remunerative prices to good workmen.

THE election of M. Barodet, Radical, in Paris, to fill a vacant seat in the National Assembly, gives strength to the rumor that there is intense feeling, in various parts of France, and particularly in the large cities, against Thiers, and his policy. The government candidate in Paris made but very little show, both the opposition candidates running far ahead. The rumor is prevalent that a movement will be shortly made to overthrow the Republic, and establish a monarchy. Lyons, Nice, Savery, Paris and other large cities are in a ferment, and are held in check by the police and military. With the first outbreak, in any direction, however, there will be an upheaval of all the bad elements in France,—and the end, no man can foresee.

MANY people are under erroneous impressions concerning the amount of the colored population of Pennsylvania and other States, and also concerning the growth of such population. The tables of the census can alone be relied upon to give correct ideas on the subject. We find that the total number of inhabitants in Pennsylvania, in 1870, was 3,521,951, and of these only 65,294 were of the colored race. While the total population was increased between 1860 and 1870 by 615,736, the increase of the colored race was only 8,345; in many counties they decreased considerably. Between 1840 and 1870 the total population of the State was more than doubled. But the colored inhabitants only increased in that period from 47,854 to 65,294, or 17,450.

THE opening of the Hoosac tunnel through the mountains of western Massachusetts is near at hand, and by the consolidation of railroad interests resulting from it, Boston looks for a greater share than it has ever enjoyed of the western trade. The American Athens expects to become a grand grain depot, through railroads, harbor, and dock improvements, and arrangements for the rapid transhipment of goods. New avenues are even now needed for the rapidly increasing Western trade of the city. Four Western connecting lines are projected, and connection with Oswego is proposed to secure the lake trade. Chicago will be brought within 924 miles of Boston, while it is 1,018 miles from New York. The difference in favor of New York to Oswego, is 22½ miles, but Boston is 200 miles nearer Europe. Now Boston gets the siftings of the Western trade, but hopes soon to get the bulk of it, and to make producers seek the New England market.

THE PUBLIC will regard with pleasure the growing disposition of the Courts to hold life insurance companies to their engagements. In the United States Circuit Court in Philadelphia, last week, a case was tried in which a life insurance company resisted the payment of a policy on the ground that the insured, in answering the questions printed in the form of application, had in some cases given incorrect replies. The company's plea was that he had concealed the fact that he was suffering from incipient consumption, and on this account had been previously rejected by other companies. The charge to the jury was to the effect that if such concealment had been committed it was sufficient to vitiate the policy. The jury, however, did not think there had been any deception, and brought in a verdict against the company for the full amount named in the policy, and the interest and dividends accrued thereon since the death. This verdict will be gladly received by the legion of insurers who look with alarm upon the growing tendency to resist payment on the part of some life insurance companies whose representatives are anxious enough to collect premiums from their customers, but regard it as quite a different matter when, after death, the widows and orphans ask for the money due them in return.

THE report of the Committee on Railroads to the Constitutional Convention embodies a number of very stringent sections, which, if finally adopted, will hold the corporations to a very rigid line of duty. The three conspicuous items limit them in their local freight charges to the rate charged on through freights; prevent their consolidating with or controlling other than their own lines, for which they were specially chartered, and require their acceptance of these terms as precedent to any beneficial legislation in their behalf. These items involve some questions that may require to be settled by the Courts. Among these is that of vested rights, and the possibility of these being taken from a corporation, when once granted. The main issue will be as to what constitutes a vested right,—as we presume it will hardly be contested that an institution, once possessed of vested rights, cannot be dispossessed of them. Whether a charter, creating a corporation, conveys at the same time what is termed a vested right, is a question concerning which lawyers differ. Under a charter, the corporation acquires lands, makes improvements, expends money, creates a business, and in several ways gives a money value to the privileges conferred by the charter. That the property thus acquired is theirs can admit of no reasonable doubt. But if a railroad is a public highway, it may be regulated by law, and as the Constitution embodies fundamental law, it follows that it may be regulated by the terms and provisions of the Constitution. We hear that considerable feeling has been excited by the report submitted, and that the entire subject will undergo very earnest discussion by the rival parties. Thus far the provisions of the new Constitution are apparently non-partisan, and the lines of division regarding it, will be drawn with reference to the particular subjects embodied, and not the political parties interested. Should the Convention fix a particular time for the people to vote on the new Constitution, every person will be enabled to gratify his personal predilections.

WHAT ANSWER?

We have called the attention of Attorney-General Dimmick, once or twice, to a bill which, so far as legislative forms go, was enacted into a law. We refer to the bill, providing for a special vote on the Constitution that will shortly be submitted by the Convention. It has been claimed that a motion to reconsider this bill nullifies it, and that consequently, it is not a law. We presume it has not reached the Governor, and that it may fail for the want of his signature. Whether this shall be the case or not,—a very nice point is raised, by the assumption that a motion to reconsider a passed bill practically kills it. Will the Attorney General look up this bill, and determine its validity?

It is quite generally understood that the bill referred to being practically dead, (for whatever its merits, we judge it has not been brought to the attention of the Governor) the Constitutional Convention will order the time and manner of election, by which the people shall accept or reject the new Constitution. We have even heard that an attempt will be made to ignore or nullify this action, should it be had. This raises the question, whether the authority of the Convention is paramount? We think it is; but we know there are others who believe otherwise. To us, the subject assumes this simple form. A Convention, representing the people, and entrusted with the revision or creation of fundamental law, is superior to any other law making body in the Commonwealth. Elections, as to time and mode, are proper subjects for legislation; therefore this body may order a special election to meet a particular emergency. There is, also, propriety in its securing a fair vote, free from partisan surroundings, for the new Constitution. Inasmuch, however, as there are those who think differently from us on this point, we submit to the Attorney General this further question, whether the Constitutional Convention is possessed of the right and power to submit its work to a vote of the people, at such special time, and under such particular circumstances, as it may determine? We hope we may be favored with an answer.

THE EAST INDIA COMPANY.

One of the anomalies of English politics may be seen by comparing two items of recent parliamentary action. An attempt to pass the Irish University Bill, which merely changed the educational system in that country to an insignificant extent was met with intense prejudice, and defeated by a vote that drove the ministry to a resignation of power. Just now, a bill is nearly through Parliament, and is meeting with no organized opposition, which dissolves the greatest trading and governing corporation known to history. The bill is merely entitled "a bill for the redemption of the dividend of the East India company," but the last clause of the bill dissolves the company itself. The stock is to be redeemed by the close of April, 1874, at the rate of £200 sterling for £100 of stock. The dissolution of the company will take place on the first of June, 1874. Thus will pass out of existence a corporation, which has existed for three centuries, and which during its prosperity, received and dispensed princely revenues in a lavish manner.

The organization of the East India Company was one of the results of the war waged against England by Phillip II. of Spain, which closed her sources of supply for Indian goods. This was so severely felt, that despite the Pope's bull, which held the Indian trade sacred to Portugal, a company of London merchants was formed, September 22, 1599, with a capital of £30,133, and were chartered December 31, 1600, by Queen Elizabeth, under the title of the "Governor and Company of Merchants of London trading with the East Indies." This charter was in force for fifteen years. It empowered the company to elect a governor, twenty-four directors, to inflict punishment, and in various ways to exercise government, subject to the laws of Great Britain. Its first expedition sailed from Torbay, in 1601, and landed at Atcheen, Sumatra, now noted as the centre of war against the Dutch. In 1612, Captain Beal obtained from the Court at Delhi the privilege of establishing a factory at Surat, the chief city of the British in India until they were established at Bombay. Commercially, the affairs of the Company prospered. In 1613 the stock was united, and it rose in value to 203 per cent. and in 1615 the stock was increased £1,629,040. In 1655, Cromwell sought to make trade with the Indies free, but the next year was induced to renew the company's charter. In 1667-68 the tea trade was opened, and long continued the chief source of income; in 1667 a factory was established on the banks of Hoogly, and became the foundation of the city of Calcutta. From this period, for a time, its affairs were under a cloud, and the company unpopular. In 1698 a new company was chartered, in return for a loan to the State of £2,000,000; but in 1702 it united with the old company, and in return for a further loan of £1,200,000, the charter of the consolidated companies was extended to 1726, and thereafter until a notice of three years was served upon them, and their loan repaid; In 1744 the company secured an extension of its charter till 1780 by loaning the State £1,000,000. The system of territorial acquisition began in 1749 by expelling, and then protecting the rajah of Tanjore. In 1757 the nabob of Bengal was deposed and his provinces seized; in 1792, Tippoo Sahib was compelled to give up his territory and £3,500,000 in bullion. In a series of wars Hindostan and outlying provinces were acquired. Not to continue details, the affairs of the company were taken more closely in hand during Pitt's ministry,—its principal officials being made appointees of the Crown.

In 1833 a new charter was granted, which, among other things, contained the provision for winding up the affairs of the company, which is now being put in force. They required that all the property, real and personal, of the company should, in April, 1834, be vested in the Crown, and managed in trust by the company for the Crown; the stockholders were guaranteed by the Government an annual dividend of 10½ per cent. on their stock. Of the treasure of the company, valued in 1834 at £21,103,000, £2,000,000 was formed into a sinking fund, with which, in 1874, to buy out the stockholders at £200 for every £100 of stock. This is the arrangement which is now being given effect by the bill pending before Parliament. The bill is in charge of Messrs. Grant Duff and Ayrton, and, while not a government measure, in the sense of having been proposed by the Ministry, it is nevertheless more important, in its prospective results, than any bill that has been before Parliament during the Gladstone Ministry. Its effect is to extinguish the stock of the company, and thus turn over to the Government the entire revenue of that important country, now an appanage of the Crown.

The political administration of British India, and even its material growth, have many elements of romance. Prior to the advent of the English, it was the centre of barbaric splendor, of untold wealth in gold and precious stones, while its people worshipped under forms of religion which are claimed to be the most ancient among men. The people comprise a tawny race, divided into classes by their religion. The Parsees are keen and shrewd as traders, and others are kind, affectionate and gentle, still others are proverbially cruel and treacherous. Much of India was really conquered for the English by native Sepoy soldiers, but these by a slight violation of their caste rules were precipitated into rebellion, which would have ended the history of the company had not the crown sent troops to its aid. As it was, rich districts and populous cities were thoroughly subdued, and the power of the conqueror was more firmly established than ever. The government of India was long regarded as corrupt, and some of the most famous trials known in England were the outgrowth of improper money making in office.

While it is true that the rebellion of 1857 broke the power of the company, the reflection arises, would our Government have the nerve and the purity to annul a great corporation like this, possessed of great and divers powers? While it is true that the ascendancy of the Government was gradual, beginning in the curtailment of one power only, and lapping off privilege after privilege, till now nothing remains to the company but its stock, and this is to be bought up at double price, yet even here is a lesson for us. How many of our great corporations gradually secure the enlargement of their privileges and the gradual consolidation of their power? The lesson of this Indian experience, on the part of England, is, let the Government control thoroughly the corporations it may charter, that eventually it may take them entirely in hand, annuling powers which at best should exist only for a term of years.

IT HAS not yet been decided if the Vienna Exhibition is to be opened by a speech of the Emperor in person or by the Grand Duke Rainer in his capacity of chairman of the Commission. The Prince Consort's opening the London Exhibition is adduced as precedent for the latter alternative, the Emperor Napoleon's opening that at Paris for the former.

ON Saturday evening last Arthur M. Arnold, aged fourteen, only son of Hon. Isaac N. Arnold, of Chicago, was drowned in Rock river at Dixon, Illinois, by the capsizing of a small boat which he had built himself, and was making a trial trip with his father, who was in a skiff near by, but was unable on account of the swift current to rescue the boy, and he was drowned before his eyes.

THE hideous custom among Japanese women of blackening their teeth and shaving their eyebrows, on their being married or reaching a marriageable age, is likely to die out or become abolished, for we learn that the Empress has set the example of innovating upon this old fashion, dictated by Asiatic jealousy, and henceforth her teeth and eyebrows will be allowed to remain as nature formed them.

THE magnificent jewels belonging to the wife of Mr. Lizardi, who absconded under bail, a defaulter for upwards of a quarter of a million of money, were recently sold in London. The largest prices fetched were £1,200 for a brilliant necklace, £1,265 for a brilliant brooch, £2,000 for a brilliant tiara and £2,700 for a pearl necklace studded with brilliants. The total receipts of the sales amounted to between £10,000 and £11,000.

A SINGULAR Good Friday custom still prevails at Smithfield, England. It is the duty of the rector of the parish of St. Bartholomew the Great to deposit twenty-one sixpences on a gravestone, which the same number of poor widows pick up. The custom originated in the will of a lady, who left a sum of money to yield the sixpences to be distributed over her grave. A strange part of the tradition is that any one too stiff in the joints to pick up the money must not receive it.

A NOVELTY in brandy has made its appearance in the San Francisco market, and promises to be used by consumers of that article. It is stated that from eight to ten pounds of dried figs will make a gallon of brandy, which can be sold at $1.30 per gallon. As figs are very plentiful in California, exceeding the demand, it is very probable that should the experiment prove successful that phenomenal State may be enabled to add another large industry to its products.

A MOST singular banquet has just taken place in Paris. M. Decroire invited several of his friends and a small company of scientific men to dine upon the flesh of horses who had died from the glanders; of cows, the victims of the rinderpest, and of an ass, just killed by hydrophobia. It was a "test banquet"—one that proved the devotion of each man there to science, in that he was willing to risk his life to demonstrate, in the most practical manner, that the flesh of animals is not affected by human food by even the worst diseases.

AT SIX o'clock on Monday morning a fire broke out in the Market Hall, in Iowa City, Iowa. Five persons were buried beneath the walls, named Robert Love, W. P. Doty, F. Volkringer, Mr. Hart and George Andrews. Love died in half an hour after being taken out, and Andrews, who is a colored boy, will not live. Mr. Hart, a University law student, from Comanche, Iowa, will not survive. Others had limbs broken, though not serious. The loss of property will be about $20,000. There was a rain storm at the time, else the destruction of property would have been immense.

THE State Board of Canvassers of Connecticut returned the official vote cast at the recent State election. The total vote for Governor was 86,881. Ingersoll, Democrat, received 45,059; Haven, Republican, 39,245; Smith, Temperance, 2,541 votes, with some scattering. Ingersoll's majority over all is 3,227, and his plurality over Haven 5,814. The Democratic State ticket is elected by an average majority of about 1,200, leaving out the Treasurer. Raymond, Democrat, for Treasurer, has 43,527 votes, and Nichols, Republican, for Treasurer, has 40,987. The Temperance candidate and other scattering have 2,428, which, added to Nichols' vote, elects Raymond by a majority of 12.

FEMALE writers are poorly paid in most of the countries of Europe. George Sand is the only author of France who has become wealthy, and Victor Hugo is said to be the only male writer who receives large copyrights. Anna Tenheyden, of Holland, has realized well from a series of school books. Frederica Dethloffsen, of Denmark, has been placed in good circumstances by twelve novels, all running through many editions. Emilie Flygare-Carlen and Maria Sophia Sewatz, of Sweden, have earned fortunes in ten years. Of all the female writers in south-eastern Europe, only Dora d'Istria is rich; while in Russia all literary labor is very unprofitable.

HOTEL CLERKS are thus defended by a writer in the Louisville Courier-Journal. He says: "Speaking of the hotel clerks, I could never, for the life of me, understand why it is that the shafts of all newspaperdom are leveled at this devoted class. So much has been written of their loftily scorn that they have become a proverb for stilted insolence. But there is another side to the picture. Hotel clerks are not all impolite. Hotel guests do not always tread on thorns nor on red-hot ploughshares of clerkly indignation. There is no inevitable connections in short, between that unenviable office and impudence. The very reverse is true, since it is hardly possible that proprietors, in search of politeness, could invariably hit on boors. They, too, as well as travelers, have their petty annoyances, and a great many of them. Think of a poor fellow in tight pants and tighter boots standing all day and half the night in the office to answer questions! Put yourself in his place for only a few short weeks, and learn to be just and fear not. Remember, you are not the first one who has asked him (at least a half dozen times) when the train starts—even while the hour is placarded right under your nose. Guests are sometimes impudent themselves, feeling, no doubt, that because a man sells his meat and bread he necessarily sells his sensitiveness with it."

BISHOP COXE, of Western New York, makes the proposition that there shall be a Constitutional Congress of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this country some time before the year 1876, with a view to settling the differences that have cropped out among its prelates. Bishop Coxe's individual ideas may be guessed from the expression that the time has come to determine whether the Episcopacy of America is to be "fossilized as an Anglican exotic" or is to enlarge its sphere. Aside from this there are certainly serious questions of Church practice and policy in the American Episcopal Church, which seems to require the intervention of competent authority, and which nothing less than a General Congress, such as Bishop Coxe suggests, will be likely to settle definitely. It is improbable that such a Congress might lead to the withdrawal of many of the clergy and laity who now worship according to the forms of the Protestant Episcopal rites, and this may be considered preferable to the continuance of the dissensions and contests between the Bishops and clergy, the individual constructions that lead to them and the other sources of disagreement which are more likely to increase than to decrease from now on.

RUPTURE.

Every kind of Trusses for the cure of Rupture may be obtained at Dr. Keyser's establishment, No. 167 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa. It is a matter of the greatest consequence that all who are ruptured should be properly fitted with a suitable Truss, and one that will keep the ruptured parts in their place. Many persons do not know when they are ruptured, and frequently years are allowed to pass by before anything is done. This is a great error, and one that is often paid for at the expense of the person's life. Rupture is too serious an injury to be treated with lightness or neglect, especially when the means for its relief and cure are so easily obtained. Children and young persons are easily cured with the improved appliances which are constantly being added to the great variety which Dr. Keyser always has on hand.

Dr. Keyser's office, 167 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa., from 10 A. M. until 1 P. M., and from 3 to 6, and on Saturdays at night.

GETTYSBURG
KATALYSINE WATER.

The United States Dispensatory, the authorized record of our Materia Medica, classes this water with the most renowned Alkaline or Carbonated Springs of Europe. It far exceeds any ever known in its self-preserving properties. It does not deteriorate by bottling and keeping. It has never been claimed for any other mineral water the power to dissolve the urates, or so-called chalk formations in the body or on the limbs and joints. This the Gettysburg Katalysine Water has done in hundreds of instances. Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Gravel, Diabetes, Kidney, and Urinary Diseases generally have all yielded to its influence. It has restored muscular power to the paralytic, cured Abdominal Dropsy, and given healthy action to the Torpid Liver. It has cured Chronic Diarrhœa, Piles, Constipation, Asthma, Catarrh, Diseases of the Skin, General Debility and Nervous Prostration from Mental and Physical Excesses. All these by the bottled water. It is a powerful antidote for Excessive Eating or Drinking. It corrects the Stomach, promotes Digestion, and relieves the head almost immediately. Pamphlets containing a history of the Spring, reports from eminent physicians and medical writers, marvelous and well-attested cures, and testimonials from distinguished citizens, will be furnished and sent by mail on application to

DAILY GAZETTE.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, April 28, 1873.

The papers of to-day are full of the defalcation of the cashier of the Atlantic National Bank amounting to about $400,000. Of course there will be a storm of condemnation heaped upon the offending man, and not without reason, too; but while we condemn these crimes of officers in responsible positions, there are some lessons to be learned from these frequently-recurring defalcations. The question may well arise—Is there not something wrong with our banking system that such defalcations should be possible? It seems to us that there are some errors and defects about our banking business which can and ought to be remedied. Chief among these defects is that, as a rule, cashiers are not paid liberally enough—not enough when the great responsibility of their positions is concerned. A cashier ought to receive so large a salary that in addition to having a comfortable living for his family, he can lay by a surplus for the future. But if he can by his salary barely pay his expenses, the daily temptation before him to misappropriate the funds in his care is a fearful one. Hence, directors of banks by giving but small salaries are but aiding in tempting their employes to do wrong. Again, directors are too often mere figure heads, knowing really nothing concerning the real condition of the institutions under their charge. This is to be remedied, first, by having among the directors men who are practical bankers—men who understand the modus operandi of banking, and who can see when accounts are right or not; second, by having frequent and thorough examinations by competent men. These examinations are too often mere forms—meaning nothing. But above all we say again, that it is wisdom to have good, honest men as cashiers, and pay them so liberally for their labor that there will be no temptation to tread in forbidden paths.

Our local money market to-day continues in a comparatively easy condition. Money is plenty in certain directions, and there is no difficulty in placing first class paper. For mortgages there is a great demand, there seeming to be more money than mortgages. The tendency of this plenty of money will be to bear down rates for this class of investments, and it will be well if it should do so.

NEW YORK, April 28, 1873.

Wall street was feverish, unfounded reports as to other banks than the Atlantic causing uneasiness. Money tightened from 7 currency to gold interest early in the day to 1-16 per diem, with an active demand, closing at 1-64@1-32. The Atlantic Bank has been expelled from the Clearing House. Sterling was strong; 108⅛@109 for sixty days, 109⅝@109⅞ for sight. Gold was lower under the way Treasury programme, but active; opened at 117¼, touched 117⅜, fell to 117, closing at 117@117⅛. Loans 3@7 per cent. coin, closing at 6@7. Clearings $66,000,000. Treasury disbursements $1,432,000. Governments ⅛@¼ lower, sympathizing with gold, but closed steady. State bonds are neglected. Stocks have been active, but weak. all day, and prices declined throughout the list 1@2½ per cent. There was a slight improvement about two o'clock, but it was lost before the close, and the market left off weak. The money stringency and fears of further bank troubles were impelling causes of the decline. There was a rumor that ten thousand shares of various stocks held by Taintor, the defaulting cashier of the Atlantic Bank, have been thrown on the market.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, April 28, 1873.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

APPLES—The receipts during the past week have been liberal, but with a fair demand, especially for good sound fruit, prices are maintained, and if anything the feeling is firmer; we continue to quote in a jobbing way at $2 to $3½ per barrel, according to quality and condition.

ASHES—Trade continues quiet, and prices are without quotable change. Common Soda ash $4.75@4.85; refined, high test 6@6½; Pearls, 11; Pots, 9@9½; Manganese, 6@6½. Black lead, 5½@6; Arsenic, 4½@5. Flour Spar, 2½@3.

ALE—The market is generally reported slow unusually so for this particular time, but prices remain unchanged. We continue to quote standard Pittsburgh brands as follows: X, $8 per brl. to the city, and $9 to the country; XX, $10. India Ale, $11.

APPLE BUTTER—Continues to arrive freely, but with a steady demand there is no accumulation and prices are well maintained: quotable at 45@55c per gallon, according to quality.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 33@35 cents per lb.

BEANS—The arrivals recently have been comparatively light but the supply is still equal to the demand, and hence, prices remain unchanged, ranging from $2.50@2.75 per bushel, for good mediums to prime navys.

BROOM CORN—The market continues quiet, as the demand is mainly for small lots for immediate requirements, but prices remain unchanged: 3@4c for red; 5@6 for green, and 6½@7 for hurl, according to quality.

BUTTER—The supply of good butter has been short of the demand during the greater part of the week, and prices in consequence, have advanced fully 5c per lb; we now quote prime to choice roll at 37@40—there have been some sales at 42@43, but these latter figures are considered above the market. Common butter, however, is in good supply and dull, and prices no better: 12 to 15 for inferior: 20 to 25 for fair, and 30 for medium. It is expected that the receipts of good butter will be larger this week than last; hence, in view of lower prices, dealers generally are anxious to realize; however, as long as the weather continues cold it is probable that the supply of good butter will be light.

CARBON OIL—The jobbing trade, as is always the case at this season of the year, continues very limited, but prices, in sympathy with the raw material, are higher; we now quote standard brands by the car load at 16½, and 1@2c additional for smaller lots.

CHEESE—The market is easier, and with new stock coming in pretty freely, prices are weaker, and we reduce our quotations as follows: new Ohio Dairy, 12@12½c; new Ohio factory, 14@14½; choice old New York Goshen, 16@16½. Ohio Sweitzer, 17@18.

CANNED GOODS—Peaches are considerably firmer in consequence of reports to the effect that the coming crop is likely to be unusually light, and, if it should turn out that the buds have been killed by the recent frosts, as is now apprehended, prices will doubtless advance; but until this has been ascertained, it is not likely that there will be any change. We continue to quote 3 lb. Peaches at $3@3.25 per dozen; 2 lb. cans, $2.50; Tomatoes $2.37½@2.50; Winslow's Corn, $3; other brands $2.50@2.75.

COUNTRY BACON—The arrivals continue light, and in consequence of the further advance in city cured; it is selling readily at quotations, 6@7 for Shoulders; 8@9 for Clear Sides; 10@12 for Hams. Country Lard, 7½@8½, according to quality.

COTTON, SHEETING and YARNS.—Penn Mill A. No. 1; 4-4 Sheeting, 13c; Nonatook, 12½c; Pittsburgh Family, 12c; Juniata B, fine, 11½c. White Carpet Chain fine, 30c; Colored, 45c Cotton Batting, 20; Cotton Twine, Yarn and Wicking 30.

CRANBERRIES—Prime Cultivated quoted at $13@14 per barrel; common, $9@10.

DRIED FRUIT—There is no improvement in the demand and prices are nominally unchanged. Peaches, halves, 6@7c; mixed and quarters no demand at all, 4½@5; peeled, 14@16. Apples nominal at 3@4½. Blackberries, 10@12. Pitted Cherries, 18@20; unpitted, 6@8. The stock of apples and peaches is large, and dealers very generally are anxious to close out.

EGGS—The receipts continue liberal, hence, with a supply in excess of the demand, the market has been a little offish, although as compared with this day week, prices have undergone but little change. Quotations may be fairly given at 14@15.

FLOUR—The market has ruled a shade firmer during the past week in consequence mainly of an advance in wheat, west, but there is no noticeable improvement in the demand, nor is there any perceptible change in prices; we continue to quote in a jobbing way at $7.50@8 for Spring wheat flours, the outside figure for choice Minnesotas, and $8.50 to $9 for red winter wheat. Our latest advices both from New York and Liverpool report breadstuffs quiet, and the indications, therefore, at this writing do not appear as favorable as they were a few days since, the closeness in money and comparative high rates of ocean freights, have a very depressing effect on the export trade, and so long as there is so little demand from Europe, we need not expect any improvement in our markets. Rye Flour continues dull at $5.50.

GRAIN—The arrivals of all kinds of Grain continue light, and with rather more inquiry, and diminished stocks, the market is considerably firmer, and prices are tending upward. There is some little excitement in Oats, and in consequence of the very limited supply, dealers have put prices 3@4c per bushel, we now quote mixed at 45@46, and white at 47@48c—there has been a sharp advance in most of the western markets, and it is claimed that even at the advanced quotations, the margin is small when it comes to replacing, and it is not policy to sell an article below what it can be replaced at. Corn, both Ear and Shelled, is also scarce and firmer, and as compared with this day week, prices are higher, we now quote Shelled at 52@53 on track, and 55 free in elevator; Ear at 52@53 in bulk, and 55 sacked. There is not much inquiry for Shelled, but the supply of ear is not equal to the demand, it has been scarce for some time past. The arrivals of Wheat continue meagre, and the great proportion of the receipts, are consigned to the mills; prices are unchanged, $1.75@1.80 for fair to prime red winter, and $1.85@1.90 for white. Several cars of spring have arrived from Chicago during the week, and it was sold, we presume to go to the country, as the mills here are grinding nothing but winter. The receipts and offerings of Rye continue very limited, but then there is little or no inquiry for it; we continue to quote nominally at 80@85. There is rather more inquiry for Barley, and the market is firmer in consequence, but there is no quotable change in prices; 85 to 90 for Spring, and 95@$1 for fall, as to quality. The receipts of all kinds of Grain have been remarkably light for several weeks past, hence, stocks, both in the hands of dealers and consumers, must be very much reduced.

GROCERIES—Coffee—The latest advices from Rio puts Coffee ½c per lb. higher there, and consequently on Saturday the importers on the seaboard increased values accordingly. The stock at Rio is considerably reduced with a tolerably brisk demand from Europe and the United States, while the daily receipts average only 2,700 bags. The holders east are confident in the opinion that higher prices will obtain soon, but the views of buyers are quite the reverse, self-interest, to some extent, governing both; the disinterested view is that the bean will not move much from its present position, and, therefore, purchases for immediate wants can be made quite safe. Java and other mild Coffees firm at our quotations. Stock of Rio in first hands in the United States, 110,610; other descriptions, 80,000 bags. Sugar—Lower than it has been for twelve years. Sugar, it is thought by all hands, is at the bottom, and under a brisk business in May will react but not go high. The current week will settle the matter definitely: and we would advise our country friends to take advantage of the present market by purchasing their summer stocks without delay. Sugars are now below the cost of production, and prices will harden up as the season advances. Molasses—New Orleans firm, and at some points 5c higher. We look for no reduction in value. Foreign Molasses lower. Syrups easy. Rice—Carolina and Rangoon firmer.

SUGARS—Patent Cut Loaf, 12½; Crushed, Granulated and Powdered, 12; Standard A, 11; B, 10⅞; Ex. C, 10⅝; C. Yellow, 10⅛; Circle C, 10⅛; Lower grades, 9@10.

COFFEE—Choice Rio, 24; Good to Prime, 22½@23½c, fair 21@21½c. Old Government Java, 31c; other Javas, 26@28c; Roasted Rio, 1 lb packages, 27c; loose, 26½c Roasted Java, 33½.

MOLASSES—Choice New Orleans, 73@75c; Prime 70@72.

SYRUPS—White Drips, 65; other grades ranging from 60 to 40, as to quality.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 9; prime, 8½; Patna, 8@8½; Rangoon, 7½@8.

CANDLES.—Mould candles, 12c. Stearine do, 14. Star do. 21½.

FISH.—Large Shore, No. 1, $25.00 per barrel; Med Shore No. 1, $23 per brl; Bay No. 1, $21; for ½ brls, quarters and kitts, 25c more. Lake Herring, halfs, $3.60; Lake herrings, quarters, $2.15; White fish, $8.

SOAP.—Babbit's soap, 10. Bell's Buffalo soap, $6.75. Strung & Wetzel wax, 7½c. No. 1 Rosin 15c. Procter & Gambles wax, 7½c.

SUNDRIES—Pennsylvania Concentrated Lye, $8. Philadelphia, $7.25. Bi-carb. Soda, kegs, 8c. Boxes, 8½c. Hammel's Extract of Coffee, $4.50. Oswego & Duryea's Corn Starch, 11; silver and satin, 10. Buffalo Corn Starch, 10; Buffalo Gloss Starch, 9. Pearl Starch, 5½. Shot, $3 per bag. Lead, 12. Wheeling Tobies, $10.50.

HAY—The offerings of loose, from country wagons, seem to be on the increase, owing doubtless to the improved condition of the country roads, and the market is weaker, although prices remain unchanged, ranging from $30@40 per ton, according to quality and condition. The receipts of baled are also increasing, and it is weaker but unchanged, $25@30.

HIDES—Following are the ruling quotations: Green Salted Steer Hides, 11½@12½ Green Salted Mixed, 11½@11½ Green Salted Cow, 11@11½ Green Butcher, 8@9; Green Salted Kip, 0.13@0.14; Green Salted Calf each, 1.70@2.10; Green Butcher's Calf Dry. 12; Flint Hides nominal at 22.

HOMINY—4@$4.25 per barrel.

MAPLE SYRUP—The receipts have almost ceased, and prices are better, $1.30@1.35 for gallon jugs. Maple Sugar, 15@17.

MILL FEED—The receipts continue light, but there is no improvement in the demand, and prices remain unchanged. Bran, 85@90c; Seconds, 95@$1; Middlings, $1.10@1.20, as to quality.

OILS—No. 1 Lard Oil, 73@75; No. 2, 68; Linseed 95@98, Whale W. B. 88@94 Bank, 78; Straits, 83 Cod $1.50@2 Spirits of Turpentine 73@75.

ONIONS—Quiet, less inquired for, and prices are weaker, may be quoted at $5@6 per brl. for good to prime. Onion Setts about out of season, nominal at $3@4 per bushel.

PEA NUTS—In good supply and very dull; we reduce our quotations to 3½@4½c per lb, as to quality.

POULTRY—Live chickens, by the coop, 80@90c per pair, according to size.

PROVISIONS—Extra Sugar Cured Hams, 14½c, canvassed do., 15c; Extra Sugar Cured Shoulders, plain, 10, canvassed, 10½c; Sugar Cured Breakfast Bacon, plain, 12½c, canvassed, 13c; Extra Sugar Cured Dried Beef, plain, 18½c, canvassed, 19c; Sugar Cured Beef tongues, $7.50 per dozen. Bacon Shoulders, 9c; Rib Sides, 10; Short Rib Sides, 10½; Clear Sides, 11c; Mess Pork, $18.50; Leaf Lard: in trcs, 10½c; half bbls, 11½c; bkts, 11½c; refined for summer use in trcs, 10½c, ½ brls, 11½; bkts, 11½; refined in 3 lb caddies, 12½; do in 5 lb 12½c; do in 3 lb pails 13½ do in 6 lb pails, 13½c; Ham Sausage 10c.

POTATOES—The arrivals continue liberal, and the market is again pretty well supplied; but there is no disposition to make any further concessions in order to effect sales; may be quoted in a jobbing way at 75@80 per bushel for mixed and 85@90 for Peach Blows.

RAGS—Quoted at 3½@3¾c.

SHAKER CORN—13@14c per lb.

SEEDS—The market for both Clover and Timothy Seeds has stiffened up considerably since the date of our last report, and we advance our quotations 25c per bushel $5.75@6 for the former, and $3.75@4 for the latter. Flax Seed continues very scarce, and crushers are taking all that offers at $2@2.05.

TALLOW—8@8½c.

WHISKY—Highwines may be quoted at 91@92 cts. per gallon.

WHITE LEAD—There is a continued steady demand but no change to note in prices: 12 cts for ton lots, and 12½c for smaller lots—these are manufacturers rates. In tin packages, ¼ to 1c per lb. additional.

WINDOW GLASS—Trade although improving, is still reported slow and backward, the orders are mostly for small lots, hence, in consequence, stocks are perhaps somewhat larger than usual at this particular time; however, prices remain unchanged—sales at 50 & 10 per cent. discount in a jobbing way and 60 straight for round lots.

CATTLE.

The supply on sale to-day was unusually large; it is true that of the 67 cars above reported, 15 cars were stockers, bought in Chicago for some of the adjoining stock growers, and of course, could not be included in the number on sale, deducting these, we have 52 cars left, and to these must be added 70 head or four cars of country cattle, making 56 cars of market stock; or counting 17 to the car, 958 head. As was the case last Monday, trade opened slow, dealers claimed that their stock cost them more, and they attempted to put up prices, to make the butchers pay the difference; hence, there was a stand off for a time, but as the day advanced there seemed to be a compromise, both sides, as it were relaxing somewhat from the position they had taken early in the day, and from 10 o'clock until the close, trade was pretty lively, and by noon the pens were pretty well cleared. The quality, considering the number, was up to what it has been for some time past, the great proportion consisting of what are classified by drovers, medium to good, and while the supply of prime to extra was light; so far as we could learn, it was fully up to the demand. Drovers allege that butchers generally are unwilling to pay a fair price for strictly prime stock, and this accounts for the very limited supply of this particular kind.

In regard to prices, we do not think that there was any quotable change as compared with last Monday—dealers generally reported this way, taking the quality into consideration; some of them said that they done a little better, while others alleged that they did not so well, but we do not hesitate to make the assertion that, with the exception of those who lost more than ordinarily by shrinkage, that the drovers generally made at least a commission, $2.50 to $3 per head. There was nothing reported above 7c, but there was nothing good enough to bring any more; extra 1,400 to 1,500, would have brought 7½ to 7¾c; good 1,300, cattle sold at 6½@6¾; 1,200, 6½@6¾; 1,000@1,100, 5½@6¼. Stock cattle were wanted and the supply of this kind was small, there were a good country buyers in attendance: may be quoted at 4½@5½, according to quality. There were three cars of still fed bulls on sale, and they were sold at prices ranging from 4½@5. Fresh cows, were in light supply and firmer, but they were but few buyers; may be quoted at $30 to $60.

Sol. Trauman sold 48 at 5 to 6¾.

Orr, Williams & Loughrey sold 1 car fairish 1,050@1,100 steers from Chicago, at 5.75@6.30.

Holmes, Lafferty & Co. report two cars from Chicago, and one car from Ohio, at 5¼@6.30.

Sadler, Havens & Co. 1 car good to extra Ohio stock at 6@7¼; 2 cars still fed steers at 6 to 6¾; 1 car of Butler county, Pa., at 6 to 6¾.

J. S. McMillan sold 5 common stock cattle at 4½.

Louis Gerson sold one of good 1,100 butcher cattle from Chicago at 6@6¾; he expected to wholesale one car mixed Ohio stock at 5¼.

Eli Katz sold one car of fair to prime Chicago stock at 6¾@7¼.

Fred. Hector sold one car of fairish Ohio butcher stock at 5¾@6¾.

Greenwald & Kahn sold one car of 1,960@1,300 still bulls for Guckenheimer & Bro. at 4¾; 78 head butcher cattle at 5¾@7; 12 extra weighing 15,300 lbs at 7c.

R. McCaslin wholesaled 9 head of stock steers to Greenwald & Kahn at 6c; returned 16 at 5¾@6.

Andy Stakely reports 10 common steers and 4 heifers for Thos. Bingham at 5@5.30.

Jacob Shamberg sold 2 cars of fair to prime at 6.10 to 7c.

Wm. Moonshine sold 2 cars of Chicago stock, at 5¾@6¾.

Rotchchilds & Haas, two cars of Chicago stock at 6¾@7 cents; 9 head of best unsold.

James Hanlin sold 11 head of mixed Washington county stock at 4¾@5¼.

Theo. Kestner sold one car of fair to good 1,100 @1,200 butcher cattle at 6@6¾.

M Varner, two cars of mixed Chicago stock at 5¾@7c; 44 head of Green county, Pa. stock, at 4¾@6¾.

Jacob Needy sold two cars from Chicago and one car from Ohio at 6 to 6¾.

Hazlewood & Blackstock report 1 car bulls at 4¾@5c; two cars of steers at 5¾@6¾.

Arnold & Lowenstein two cars of mixed stock at 4.80@6.70.

SHEEP.

The supply was small, less than 300 and considerably short of the demand, hence, the market was in sellers' favor, and prices were, as compared with last Monday, taking the quality into consideration, wooled sheep sold at 8 cts. that would not have brought more than 7½ last Monday. Clipped, of which there were no extra, sold at 6 to 6¾. It is expected that there will be a full supply next week as farmers will rush them in as soon as the wool has been secured.

James Hanlin sold 22 of close wool, averaging about 80 pounds at 2¾; 17 extra 104 pounds at 8 cents.

J. S McMillan sold 67 wooled sheep, averaging 80 to 90 lbs, 7@7¾.

Adam Eckert sold 75 clipped Ohio sheep for C. M. Heimes at 4@6¾.

Jacob Keefer sold 26 clipped at an average of 26 clipped at an average of 6.20; 22 wooled sheep at 7¾; 53 wooled sheep for James McCoy at 6¾@7¾.

HOGS.

Trade in this class of stock continues quiet, as it usually is at this season of the year; sales were made in a retail way at 6 to 6¾ gross, according to quality.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, April 28, 1873.

Crude was reported weaker, to-day, $2.52½ per brl at Parker, against sales on Saturday at $2.60; however, while prices are irregular, the tendency for some time past has been steadily upward. Refined, also firmer; 16⅛c on spot, 16⅛c for May, on cars here; 19⅛c April, Philadelphia delivery; 20c for first half of May, and 20½c last half. The New York Shipping List says: The market continues to be governed by substantially the same influences that have been apparent for some weeks past, namely, the detention of stock at the sources of supply, and a sufficient demand to prevent any accumulation here, with the consequence of strong and slightly appreciating prices. The recharter of two or three vessels, whose lay days had nearly expired, at exceptionally low rates, together with the improvement of exchange, has also contributed to the buoyancy. The refiners, as a rule, are not offering their supplies, most of the oil coming upon the market consisting of speculative lots turned over to realize a profit on the rise. The indication are that the market will remain steady and firm through May, and that after the heavy contracts for that month have been provided for, there will be an active revival of trade, though the future course of prices is merely a matter of conjecture.

Oil barrels in steady demand and firm, but unchanged. Countries, $1.95, city make, 9 lb. hoops, $2.05; 10 lb. hoops $2.10.

The Wool Trade.

BOSTON, April 26.—The Shipping List says: The receipts of domestic for the week have been 1,422 bales, against 869 bales for the corresponding week of 1872, and 2,244 bales in 1871. The receipts of foreign have been 1,601 bales against 3,641 bales last year.

The past has been the most satisfactory week in wool trade for a month at least. Prices are no higher and there is no prospect of any improvement, but manufacturers have been free purchasers at last week's prices, and this has enabled holders to reduce stocks very materially. In Philadelphia and New York the pressure to sell is not so great, and there is apparently a check on the downward tendency of the market. We have, however, touched bottom so many times since the first of January, confidence is far from being restored. Besides the sale 100,000,000 lbs Colonial wool has commenced in Great Britain, and we scarcely know as yet what turn that market may take.

Manufacturers have already bridged over a large portion of the wool year and there is still considerable of the old California and western on hand. New wool from Kentucky and Tennessee and new wool from California will soon be arriving, with the western clip near at hand, and there is no possible chance of any scarcity. If any desirable wool is still left in the interior, now is the time to send it along, as it will be likely to command better prices during the next two months than can possibly be realized when abundant supplies of the new clip are pressing on the market from all points. The holding on policy, that commenced in California last year, and was followed more or less by western growers, forced our manufacturers to turn their attention to foreign wool, overstocked our market, and the result has been most unfavorable. This experiment has been too costly for us to repeat the coming season.

The sales of the week embrace good lines of Wisconsin and Michigan fleeces at 46@50c; X, XX and medium Ohio and Pennsylvania from 50@55c; and the market is now steady at these figures. The demand has been exclusively from manufacturers. There is no speculative inquiry whatever. Pulled wool has been sold quite freely, and choice eastern super and X can still be bought at 50c ₩ lb. This is an outside price for anything offering, if we can except an occasional fancy lot of super, very light and handsome. Cape wools have attracted considerable attention and round lots have been placed at prices ranging from 31@34½c ₩ lb. There is considerable river Platte wool on the market, principally in the hands of bankers, who are not disposed to part with it unless for prompt cash. Some considerable lots of Montevideo have, however, been sold here and in New York at 31½c ₩ lb.

The sales include 10,000 lbs choice medium Pennsylvania at 55c; 17,000 lbs choice Ohio at 55c; 7,000 lbs good Ohio at 52½; 168,000 lbs Ohio and Pennsylvania, X and above including some very choice lots, at 50@57½c; 4,000 lbs No. 1 Ohio at 56c; and 40,000 lbs Michigan and Ohio at 47½@50c ₩ lb.

Since the above was written telegraphic dispatches have been received from the London sales and are unexpectedly favorable. One dispatch says—"Active at closing prices and last sales;" and another—"full attendance of buyers and prices unchanged." This news will no doubt tend to strengthen the market, and the downward tendency of wool is evidently checked for the time being.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues stationary at this point, with 7 and a half feet in the channel. Rained all afternoon, and the prospects at this writing are favorable for more water.

The arrivals since the date of our last report include the Carrie Brooks, from Zanesville, and the Tom Dodsworth, from Cincinnati.

We learn that the sale of the J. S. McDonald to the Mississippi Transportation Company has not yet been confirmed, and it is said that some of the creditors of the McDonald are not altogether with the price named, $40,000. It is stated that the Coal Valley Co. have offered the steamer Coal Valley, valued at $20,000 and $30,000 cash for the steamer in question, making $50,000.

The Savanna, Capt. Crane, is filling up steadily for St. Louis and the Upper Mississippi, and she may get off to-day.

The Messenger, Exchange, Wild Duck and Mary Davage are all en route from St. Louis to this port.

The wreck of the New State has about all been removed, and navigation is no longer restricted thereby.

—We clip the following from the St. Louis Democrat of Saturday: There are a great number of barges at the iron ore pile, waiting to be loaded for various steamers, and 1,000 tons per day is being put into them. The John Means will leave on Tuesday with three barges—1,600 tons—Ashland, Kentucky. The Warner, Davage, &c. are getting the ore put in their barges, and will leave before the John Means. Some of these tow boats are very fast. The John Means left here on Sunday morning for Cairo, and she averaged twenty miles per hour.—Mr. D. Campbell was notified yesterday by telegram from Mound City, that the department has approved the late sale. The three monitors bought by Mr. Campbell on that occasion will be brought here to be wrecked. Mr. Campbell goes to Mound City early next week, and may have steam raised on them and start them for St. Louis. In the meantime he will entertain bids for towing them, the iron clads, to this port.

—The Nellie Peck arrived at Sioux City on Sunday and left for Benton Monday, after adding 100 tons. She left drawing 4 feet. The Miner started up the Missouri on Sunday with 200 tons oats, &c. The Far West took on 40 tons at Sioux City, and left on Sunday for Benton. The Journal says:

"She was just 16½ minutes rounding the point out of sight from the foot of Pearl street. This is said to be the fastest time on record. The E. H. Durfee made the same run last summer in 16 minutes. Capt. Nelson, who loaded her at St. Louis, and was on her to this point, had the happy privilege of stopping off here with his family, and Tom. Mariner took his place as mate. Nelson is engaged by the Coulson Company for, nine months, at one hundred dollars per month work or play."

Yesterday morning, however, she appeared in her accustomed good health, but about six o'clock she dropped dead. A verdict of death from natural causes was rendered. The deceased leaves a family of five grown up children.

He missed his footing, however, and fell under the wheel, which passed across his stomach, producing severe internal injuries. He was removed to his home on Federal steet, and received medical attention.

Allegheny's Death Roll.

The report of Health Officer Hoch, for the week ending yesterday morning, reduces the number of deaths during the week to 26. Of this number all were white—being 17 males and 9 females. The diseases were as follows: Unknown, 1; spasms, 3; cancer on stomach, 2; consumption, 7; Bright's disease of the kidneys, 1; still-born, 3; typhoid fever, 2; cancer on throat, dropsy, whooping cough, old age, convulsions, cerebro-spinal meningitis and inflammation of lungs, each 1. Of the above there were under 1 year of age 5; from 1 to 5, 1; from 5 to 10, 2; from 10 to 20, 5; from 20 to 30, 2; from 30 to 40, 3; from 40 to 50, 4; from 50 to 60, 1; from 60 to 70, 1; and from 70 to 80, 2.

A Heavy Haul.

Yesterday morning as officer William Lodge was putting out his lights, corner of Twenty-fourth and Smallman streets, he noticed two men coming from the direction of the railroad carrying each a bag on his shoulder, which appeared to be very heavy. To say the least they acted very suspiciously and the officer concluded to watch them. As they came near him however they dropped their plunder and ran away. The officer started forthwith but they were too fleet of foot for him. He sent several shots after them but without any effect. When he went back to where the bags were left, he found that they contained some one hundred and fifty pounds of sheet lead, which were taken to the Twelfth Ward station to await identification.

Another Little Unpleasantness Between the Police and the Fire Department.

On Saturday evening officer Denis Maley, of the South Side, arrested Mr. Frank Donnelly, foreman of the Walton Hose. The charge brought against Mr. Donnelly was that he called the officer "a —— mean [illegible]" for which he was taken into custody and taken before Deputy Mayor Heisel, who held Donnelly in his own recognizance for fifty dollars. It is alleged that some very ugly language was used in the Deputy Mayor's office, the officer going so far as to call the fireman a liar. Yesterday Mr. Donnelly lodged a complaint against the officer before Mayor Blackmore, charging him with arresting him illegally and conduct unbecoming an officer. The case will be heard this morning at ten o'clock at the Mayor's office.

The Board of Revision.

Yesterday the Board of Revisors were in session in the Common Council chamber, B. F. Kennedy, President, occupying the chair.

Reports of the sub-committees of the Eleventh, Sixteenth, Twenty-fourth and Thirty first wards were submitted and approved, as was also the report of Messrs. Lewis, Wenke and Strain, the special committee appointed to make the assessments in the Fourteenth ward.

Mr. Newman offered a resolution giving authority to reporters to examine the assessment books of the different wards, and to publish the list of assessments if they saw proper. The resolution was promptly tabled for fear that if adopted the Board would be literally besieged by dissatisfied tax-payers.

The Board adjourned until Friday morning at ten o'clock.

A LIVELY SKIRMISH.

A Miniature Riot in Chartiers—Pistols and Stones Freely Used.

Yesterday morning Patrick Martin made an information before 'Squire Hill, of Chartiers township, against James and Martin Connelly, brothers, charging them with felonious assault. James Connelly has also made an information against Patrick Martin, charging him with felonious assault in attempting to take his life. They were held in $500 bail each for a hearing. It appears that between two and three o'clock yesterday morning a lively fight took place in Chartiers borough, in which stones and pistols played quite an important part. The assault originated it is alleged, by Martin, in this wise: The two brothers, Connelly were returning home from a wake in a very intoxicated condition. When near the railroad crossing where Martin is watchman, they commenced to assault him without any cause. The brothers allege that Martin halted them on the road while quietly walking along, and fired two shots at them, one of them taking effect in James Connelly's hand. In the melee Martin was badly used, as were the Connelly's. Two shots were fired and stones were freely thrown.

THE ALLEGHENY GAS WORKS.

Progress of the Negotiations—The Gas Company's Representatives—The Work of Appraisement to be Pushed Through.

The Special Committee of Allegheny Councils on the purchase of the Gas Works, are earnestly pushing forward the work. A few days ago, it will be remembered, they reported the names of two gentlemen to act as appraisers for the city, and the Gas Company being thus admonished, have accepted the situation and have just appointed their representatives. The Board now stands Messrs. Barclay, Preston and W. K. Nimick for the city, and Messrs. Thos. M. Marshall and J. H. McElroy (of Pittsburgh Gas Works) for the Gas Company. These four will choose a fifth, [whom they are now deliberating upon] and the Board of Appraisement thus organized, will go to work at once. It is claimed on the part of the Gas Company that there is no appeal from the award of the appraisers, and that the city must take the works at their valuation. This claim, while not agreed to on the part of the city, will, however, not likely interfere with the prompt acceptance of the works, and it is quite probable Allegheny City, within a few months, will own its gas works.

CUT TO PIECES.

A Fatal Ride—A Little Boy Instantly Killed—The Body Terribly Mangled.

Yesterday afternoon, a little boy named Henry Crawford, met with a terrible death, in Allegheny, while attempting to get upon a moving train. The little victim was about ten years of age, and was returning to his home in the Fifth ward, from an up-town trip. When he reached the railroad crossing at Irwin and North avenues, he stopped to let a train pass by, but as it was apparently moving slowly, he only waited until the head of train had passed, and then made an attempt to "jump on." He succeeded in getting hold of the railing but missed his footing and was dragged along for a short distance until one of his feet was caught between the "frog" and the "guard rail" at a switch. The foot was firmly wedged in and as he was jerked loose from the car, he fell in such a position that part of his body lay across the track, and the car wheels passed over him cutting one leg off at the thigh, amputating the foot of the other leg, and otherwise horribly mangling the body, and producing instant death. Several persons in the vicinity who had witnessed the accident, but too late to prevent it, ran to the spot and attempted to gather up the remains, but before they could do this a crowbar had to be procured to pry the rails apart to free the foot that had been caught. The mangled body was put into a receptacle provided and taken to the home of the father of the boy, Mr. John Crawford, residing in Frazier's alley.

The Coroner has been notified, and will hold an inquest to-day.

AN ATROCIOUS CRIME.

A Horrible Murder Near Saltzburg.

A YOUNG GIRL VIOLATED AND THEN MURDERED.

A Pair of "Tramps" Said to be the Perpetrators.

A FULL ACCOUNT OF THE TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

We record this morning one of the most terrible murders that has ever occurred in this community. The victim of this dastardly and horrible crime is a little girl, who was violated and murdered, after a terrible struggle, in the woods about a half mile from Saltzburg station, in this county. The citizens of the vicinity are terribly aroused, and if the perpetrators are caught, Judge Lynch will probably decide their case.

THE SCENE OF THE MURDER.

About a half mile from the little station of Saltzburg on the Connellsville road, an honest coal miner resides named Christian Cline, he had in his family an adopted daughter named Eliza Mess, an interesting little girl of some fourteen years of age. Cline is in the employ of the Schanks & Brown coal company. Yesterday morning about nine o'clock Mrs. Cline sent the girl, who was rather small for her age to the company's or as it is known to the J. C. Schank's store to get some groceries. The child stayed away very long for one having to go only a short distance, and Mrs. Cline became very anxious. Inquiries were made, which revealed the fact that the child had been seen by the Connellsville Railroad day watchman talking to two men on the path leading to McCloskey's woods. A search of the woods was at once commenced, and at about two hundred yards from the anthracite coal mine track among the leaves presented itself. There lay the form of the little girl in a pool of blood, presenting at once a heartrending and sickening sight. She was still alive and moaning. Her head was crushed in and a stone was imbedded in the skull. A fence stake lay near by, broken in two, one end of it being besmeared with brains and the life-blood of the innocent victim of brutal lust and crime. The almost lifeless body was picked up and carried to her home.

STOUT HEARTS ALMOST QUAILED

as they carried the inanimate form to her once happy home. The grief of Mr. Cline and his family was most intense, and as they laid her upon a bed a scene indeed heart-rending in the extreme presented itself. Dr. McKinny, of Saltzburg, was summoned to see if he could extract the piece of stone that was imbedded in the skull. He, with the assistance of a physician from McKeesport, succeeded in taking the piece of rock from her head and restoring it somewhat to its natural shape. She lingered until about twelve yesterday morning when she died. She remained insensible until her death.

The ground about where the murder had been committed showed must have taken place. The ground for many feet around where she lay was torn up, remnants of clothing, several pants and a shirt button, showed, what a terrible struggle she must have made to defend her life from the terrible ruffians. As soon as the news of the horrible crime gained circulation, excitement became intense in the community. Miners left work and determined to ferret out the brutal creatures who were capable of committing so horrible a crime.

A CLUE TO THE PERPETRATORS.

As we have above stated, an employe of the Connellsville road saw two men talking to the girl on the path leading into McCloskey's woods. He gave a description of them, as follows: One of the men wore a cap, and the other a slouch hat; one was about five feet five or six inches high, while the other might have been two or three inches taller. The shortest one appeared to be about thirty-five years of age, and the tallest thirty-two. One of them had on Kentucky jean clothing, while the other man wore a sort of a brown cloth coat, faded, and cassimere pants and vest. Shortly after this, Mr. Charles Dillon saw two men just answering this desription jump the fence of McCloskey's woods and walk hurriedly toward the railroad track. He also saw the girl go into the woods. The men looked like "tramps," but he took no more notice of them, as he did not then know of the occurrence.

STILL ON THE TRAIL.

Shortly after this as Mr. Robert Hutchinson, foreman of the Keystone Mining Company was coming up the road he noticed two men walking hurriedly and that one of them had no collar on and looked as though he had been in a scuffle, for the button was torn off the neck band of the shirt and one cheek showed the marks of finger nails in a long ragged scratch. They asked him where they could get whisky. He told them at Port Perry, and they wanted to know now how far it was to that place. He told them and they walked on. He eyed them somewhat and thought they looked suspicious but he did did not know of what happened but his description of them coincides exactly with the others, except that he thought they were Swedes and the others thought they were Germans. They spoke in broken English. A short distance further down the road they met Mr Peter Brown, whom they asked where they could get a drink of whisky. He referred them to the river where he told them they could get all the drink they wanted.

SEEN AT BRADDOCK'S.

These men walked very rapidly, and when they passed Port Perry they were suspected of some crime, as their pace was altogether too fast for honest men. However, they stopped and got some whisky, and walked rapidly down the railroad track. At Braddock's they started over the trestle work of the road, over which all pedestrianism is prohibited. The watchman called for them to stop, but they heeded him not, and kept on their course towards this city.

Yesterday afternoon Mayor Blackmore received the following dispatch, which was the first information that was received of the

in this city:

Please look out for two suspecious-looking characters walking towards Pittsburgh. Wore caps and jean suits; one has chin whiskers; supposed to be Germans; last seen at Port Perry at 11:30 A. M.; appeared to be in great hurry. Little girl murdered at Saltzburg.

On the receipt of this faint inkling another dispatch was sent by the Mayor inquiring for further particulars, in reply to this another dispatch was received as follows: "Eliza Mess, age fourteen years; murdered one half mile from Saltzburg."

This was all the full particulars that was sent.

A STILL FURTHER CLUE.

Last evening Mr. Hutchinson, of Saltzburg, accompanied by another gentleman came down to this city to see of they could get the assistance of our detectives to ferret out the murderers. These gentlemen stated that they knew the route the men had taken and had traced them till within eight miles of this city. Detectives Long and Messner were detailed to go with the men and see if they could capture the fiends or find any clue to them. Mr. H. stated he thought they had come into the city, and might be found in some drinking saloon, but the officers were unsuccessful in their search. At about eleven o'clock they came to the Mayor's office without their man. They, however, found that these men had been traced to City Farm Station, where the officers wanted to go. But the Mayor thought they had best wait till this morning as the men would probably be at the coke ovens to-night to sleep and then could be easily captured this morning. There is no doubt but that these men will be captured as great efforts are being made for their arrest. The murder has created in this vicinity, as, for atrocity, it has probably never been equalled in this community,—the victim, a young and innocent girl of only fourteen years of age, being violated and then murdered. The place chosen, too, for the crime is a pleasure resort in summer, being used for picnics, etc., and is about one hundred and fifty yards from any house. Here the girl was waylaid and murdered, where no one save the heartless villains could hear her cries or pleadings for life. An interview with Mr. Robert Hutchinson revealed the fact that the community around Saltzburg is terribly excited and aroused, and that will undoubtedly prevail if the perpetrators are captured. "For," said he, "the community is fully aroused, and they are searching far and near to find them, and will spare no money to capture them. They are too excited now to wait for law. They will mete out justice such as California gave to like criminals years ago." The child was very much liked, and was exceedingly pretty. She was of a very mild disposition, an orphan, and had been raised by Mr. Cline and his wife as their own, and they had learned to love her as their own children, with whom she had been raised. She was a very affectionate and obedient child, and her cruel death has cast a dark shadow and a sincere sorrow over that community.

A TERRIBLE EXCITEMENT

The following additional dispatch was received last night:

"Two men arrived here Saturday evening on a freight train from Cumberland via Connellsville. They applied for and procured work as painters, agreeing to begin work this morning, which they did, but worked only until nine o'clock when they left. Were seen at different times between here and Saltzburg; also seen following Eliza Mess towards her house, and afterwards at Saltzburg, presenting a bloody appearance, still again on two o'clock train, and seen getting off at Pittsburgh.

Coroner West has been notified to hold an inquest."

HAMPTON COMING.

The Man at Last in the Hands of Pittsburgh Officers and on His Way to Pittsburgh.

C. W. Hampton, the individual who is supposed to know all about the disappearance of that box from the Safe Deposit Company, is expected to arrive in the city this morning. Yesterday morning his case came up before the New York Court, when he was released and immediately taken in charge by the Pennsylvania officers. The New York officers were so fearful that he would be rescued that they accompanied the Pennsylvania officers to the depot, and one of their Deputy Sheriffs joined the party to come to Pittsburgh. The gang of Barney Aaron, it is said, did contemplate a rescue, but were intimidated by this show of force. Several dispatches were received in the city last night by parties interested, tending to show that Hampton was coming along quietly, and that the officers would be here with him this morning.

T. J. BIGHAM,
Commissioner of Statistics.

THOSE "RAILROAD BONDS."

Mr. PHILLIPS here rose and made a personal statement in reference to the old railroad bonds of the city, which had been sold, and presented sundry papers relating thereto.

Mr. SHIPTON moved that the statement and all the papers be printed in the newspapers, and that until they were prepared for publication Mr. Phillips be allowed to keep them in his possession. Carried.

Mr. MURRAY objected and the privilege was not granted.

Mr. RIDDELL presented the report of the Market Committee for March, showing receipts for the month of $1,662, and expenditures $946. Received and filed.

Also annual reports of Water Assessor and Superintendent of the Water Works.

Mr. MORROW moved to print the reports in pamphlet form.

Mr. SHIPTON moved to amend by fixing the number of copies at 500.

Mr. RIDDELL thought the money would be wisely spent, as the Water Department was one of the most important connected with the Municipal Government, and every citizen should have a chance to see what was being done there.

The motion to print 500 copies was then carried.

WATER IN THE BASIN.

Mr. BURGWIN offered a resolution instructing the Water Committee to investigate the subject of the impurity of the water in the lower basin. After some discussion, in which the statement was made that the water was purer now than it had ever been, and that every effort was being made to keep it pure, the resolution was voted down.

Ordinance for opening of Emma street; passed finally. Ordinance for opening of Audley street; passed finally. Ordinance for opening of Wallace street; passed finally. Ordinance for opening of Aliquippa street; passed finally. Report of viewers on opening of Lincoln avenue; approved.

A WRANGLE OVER FIFTH AVENUE.

Mr. BURGWIN again desired permission to present a report from the Survey Committee as the report of a special committee.

Mr. RIDDELL objected on the ground that the Survey Committee reported in the Common Council, and no special report even could be presented from them in Select Council until it had regularly been presented in Common Council.

Mr. BURGWIN explained that the report was made on an ordinance which had been presented and passed in Common Council, but had been arrested in Select Council, and by them referred back to the committee for further information. He thought they could report nowhere else but in Select Council, because C. C. had not the business before them.

Mr. RIDDELL contended that Select Council referred the business back to the Committee, and consequently it must come up again through the regular channels.

Mr. LITTELL held that the matter came up as new business, and that it could be received in S. C., if the rules were suspended.

After some discussion on this point, the Chair decided that the point of order was well taken, and that the Committee could not report in Select Council.

Mr. BURGWIN appealed from the decision of the Chair.

The Clerk announced the question, "Shall the decision of the Chair be sustained," and the roll was called with the following result:

Ayes—Messrs. Adams, Ahl, Atterbury, Chess, Dannells, Dietrich, Dorrington, Doyle, Foster, Friday, Froelich, Galvin, Hains, Jeremy, Liddell, Lloyd, Littell, Minnick, Morrow, Murray, McCarthy, McCune, McDonald, McKee, McMahon, Och, O'Neil, Phillips, Rafferty, Rayburn, Riddell, Schultz, Shipton, Walters, Watson and Zern—36.

Nays—Messrs. Aiken, Atkinson, G. A. Brown, R. B. Brown, Burgwin, Chalmers, Durling, Fetterman, Herron, Hunter, E. P. Jones, Kirk, Marshall, McClurg, Scully, Seely and Waring—17.

President GROSS said that as the decision would be one affecting his future action in such matters he declined to vote.

The Clerk announced the chair sustained.

Mr. KIRK then moved to suspend the rules, and receive the report.

Mr. MCCARTHY raised the point of order that no rule could be suspended so as to allow a Committee to report in one branch that was compelled by the rules to report in another branch.

The chair sustained the point of order and after some discussion on this point, the ruling of the chair was sustained, and the matter was dropped.

Mr. MCKEE moved to adjourn.

Mr. SHIPTON moved to amend by taking a recess until half past seven o'clock.

After some discussion upon the question of the legality of such an adjournment, supplemented with a desultory debate upon points of order, intermingled with a variety of motions, the motion to adjourn was finally carried and Council adjourned.

President GROSS gave notice that a special meeting would be called for Friday to finish up old business.

COMMON COUNCIL.

was then taken up and disposed of as follows:

An ordinance granting Henry Schmidt privilege to erect frame addition to his building in the Seventeenth Ward. Rules suspended and ordinance passed finally.

An ordinance repealing an ordinance constructing a sewer on Beach alley, S. C., Apr. 14, passed. C. C., Apr. 28. Referred to Street Committee.

An ordinance fixing the compensation of the members of the Board of Equalization at five dollars per day for days actually engaged on. April 14th in S. C.; passed. C. C. April 28th; concurred.

Resolutions in relation to the Equalization ordinance, asking Councils to hold the ordinance in abeyance this year. April 14th in C. C.; laid on the table. April 28th in C. C.; received and filed.

CORNER LOAFING.

New business was then taken up.

Mr. DUFF, an ordinance to prevent loafing on the streets. Every policeman is authorized to arrest any loiterers on streets. Referred to the Ordinance Committee.

The members of Common Council then went into the S. C. chamber to elect Fire Commissioners. At the conclusion of the Joint Session Common Council convened again.

Report of the Market Committee in relation to money needed to make improvements in the City Hall. Received and filed.

Mr. MCCONWAY called up the communication from the Controller, relative to paying local option election expenses. In S. C. sometime ago referred to the Finance Committee with power to act. In C. C. April 14th, non-concurred, and Solicitor instructed to contest the matter in Courts. C. C. April 28th, receded from its former action and then concurred in action of Select Council. Election officers will therefore get their pay from the city.

Common Council here took a recess at four o'clock for half an hour to await business from Select Council.

At 4:30 Council again convened. No quorum being present, Council adjourned.

JOINT SESSION.

The Joint Session was called to order by President Pearson, who read a communication from the Fire Commission, setting forth the expirations of the terms of Messrs. Mackey, Hays and Moorhead, as members of the Commission, and then announced that nominations for candidates to fill the vacancies were in order.

The following gentlemen were then named: Messrs. W. J. Flinn, J. A. Chambers, Geo. Shaffer, R. W. Mackey, A. C. Dalzell, Jenkins Jones, A. A. Anderson, —— Dorrington and T. A. Pender.

Mr. SEELY moved that R. W. Mackey be elected by acclamation. Carried.

The vote was then taken on the selection of two candidates to complete the list, the first ballot resulting as follows:

*Chambers	54	Dalzell	9
Jones	48	Anderson	3
Flinn	38	Shaffer	24
Pender	17	Dorrington	6

Mr. AIKEN, before the vote was announced, moved that the two highest on the list be declared the candidates elected. This motion was carried by a plurality of the members voting, but as there were some members voting in the negative, President Negley of the Common Council raised the point of order that such a vote was not proper and a new ballot must be taken.

President Pearson then announced that there were 96 members of Councils present, and that forty-nine votes were necessary to a choice.

The ballot was then announced and Mr. Chambers named as one of the successful candidates.

Mr. MCKEE moved to elect Mr. Jones by acclamation.

Mr. MORROW moved to amend by going into a second ballot.

Mr. KIRK moved to drop all candidates but those from the South Side.

Mr. MCKEE said the South Side had no Representative and it was but courtesy that they should have one, in the Commission.

Mr. CHALMERS moved to proceed with the call of the roll, which was carried.

Previous to calling the roll the names of Messrs. Pender, Dorrington and Anderson were withdrawn.

The roll of Select Council was then called over, and when the list had been almost completed, the name of Mr. Flinn was withdrawn.

Mr. MCKEE—As they are all Jones', I move we elect him by acclamation. [Laughter.]

After some further names had been called, Mr. Dalzell withdrew his name, and Mr. McKee renewed his motion to elect Mr. Jones by acclamation which was carried.

Mr. ZERN moved to proceed with the election of an Allegheny Wharf Master.

Mr. CHALMERS moved to adjourn. Carried.

AMUSEMENTS.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—Mrs. F. S. Chanfrau made her appearance last evening to a well filled house, notwithstanding the excessive inclemency of the weather, in the character of "Aurora Floyd," in the new drama of that name, written especially for her by the talented young author, C. W. Tayleure, Esq. Mrs. Chanfrau brought out the exquisite role of "Aurora Floyd" with charming effect. All its lights and shadows, its varying moods and emotional intensity found a happy interpretation. This lady's acting is too well and favorably known among play-goers to need any eulogium at our hands; suffice to say, everything she attempts to perform is well done. Mr. Gotthold's "John Mellish" was performed in that gentleman's usual masterly manner, and the acting in the entire cast was well done. The same piece will be repeated this evening.

LIBRARY HALL.—Miss Laura Keene was greeted last evening by a large and appreciative audience, considering the very disagreeable nature of the weather, to witness her acting in the domestic drama entitled "Hunted Down, or The Two Lives of Mary Leigh," written expressly for her by Dion Boucicault. The piece was well performed throughout and gave general satisfaction. To-night "Our American Cousin," ever popular here, will be produced, with Miss Keene and the entire company in the cast, on which occasion we anticipate a crowded house.

FOREPAUGH'S GREAT SHOW.—The expectations indulged in by those persons of our city who delight in arenic sports and the wonders of zoology respecting the merits of Mr. Forepaugh's colossal aggregation were not disappointed yesterday afternoon and last night, and whatever exhibition may have heretofore been offered our citizens, they could not be placed in comparison with the monster establishment now exhibiting at the corner of Penn and Twenty-sixth streets. Mr. Forepaugh has succeeded in gathering together the most meritorious show that ever pitched tent in Pittsburgh, and if it has a superior now in the United States it must really be a marvel of managerial tact and lavish expenditure of money. The zoological and museum departments are entirely disconnected from the equestrian portion of Mr. Forepaugh's establishment, but it must be remembered that only one price of admission is exacted for the entire four exhibitions, and not a half-dozen charges, as has often been done in shows that have visited this city. At the exhibition given yesterday afternoon and last night the different tents were well filled, notwithstanding the most unpropitious condition of the weather, and great was the surprise of auditors at the magnitude of the museum. This portion of the aggregation is one of the wonders of the age, and hundreds of persons yesterday enjoyed a feast that is seldom vouchsafed to our citizens. But if the museum attracted more than ordinary attention, what can be said of the zoological department? Here the monarchs of the forest and jungle and bright-plumaged birds were exhibited in the greatest profusion, and in the collection were a number of animals and birds never before exhibited in this city. But what claimed the attention of Young America and those persons who appreciate equestrian exercises was the circus portion of the quadruple show. The performance was first-class in every particular, the witticisms of the clown were received with shouts of laughter, the comical monkeys elicited uproarious mirth, the intelligence of the horses, and the skill and thoroughness of each acrobatic equestrian and gymnastic act were all applauded by the audience, particularly the wonderful trapeze performances of Messrs. Hawley and Miaco. It is decidedly the best show that has ever visited Pittsburgh. It will remain here only three days more, exhibiting afternoon and evening. Our advice is, go and see it.

THIS EVENING our readers will have an opportunity of hearing the "star" Scottish lecturer, Prof. Allan Curr, F. G. S., deliver his humorous and instructive oration, entitled "How to Get On in the World," at the First Christian church, corner Montgomery avenue and Arch street, Allegheny. This oration has been delivered at most towns in England, Scotland and Ireland, to crowded audiences, during the last five years. The Scottish Dundee Advertiser says: "On the second night even standing room could not be obtained." This will be the only opportunity of hearing Scotland's greatest living orator, on this most exciting and amusing subject.

AIMS' AMERICAN VARIETY THEATRE.—The very best attractions are always secured at this popular place of amusement, and those furnished this week are not exceptions to the rule. There are more new brilliant stars to-night, ending with a great pantomime.

TRIMBLE'S VARIETIES THEATRE.—Mr. Williams, the stage manager, and Messrs. Gardner and Trimble never fail to secure the best performers going. All the old favorites remain during this week, while quite a number of new faces are added.

LAFAYETTE HALL.—Mrs. Slack Davis' exhibition of dancing and calisthenic and dramatic entertainment comes off on Friday evening next, May 2d. The programme is decidedly good and we doubt not the hall will be filled.

CITY HALL.—The fair for the benefit of a boarding home for working women still continues, but the disagreeable weather and horrible condition of the streets prevents many from attending who would otherwise patronize it. The fair can be visited day and evening.

INTERNAL REVENUE.

The Abolishment of Assessors—Information for Liquor Merchants, Wholesale and Retail, Tobacco and Cigar Dealers, Brewers and Tobacco Peddlers—Changes in Making Revenue Returns.

On the 20th day of May, 1873, the United States Assessor and Assistant Assessor of Internal Revenue, transfer and turn over the papers and books of their offices to the collector. All returns and reports will thereafter be made to the collector and his deputies. All special taxes on and after April 30, 1873, will be paid by stamps denoting the tax. Said stamps must be kept posted up in some conspicuous place where the business is done. A failure to do so will subject every offender to a penalty equal to his tax and costs. The following is the schedule of occupations subject to special tax:

Rectifiers	$200 00
Retail liquor dealers	25 00
Wholesale liquor dealers	100 00
Retail dealers in malt liquors	20 00
Wholesale dealers in malt liquors	50 00
Manufacturer of stills	50 00
Manufacturer of cigars	10 00
Dealers in leaf tobacco	25 00
Retail dealers in leaf tobacco	500 00
And for annual sales over $1,000, for every $1 over $1,000	50
Dealers in manufactured tobacco	5 00
Manufacturer of tobacco	10 00
Brewers (annually manufacturing less than 500 barrels)	50 00
Brewers, not less than 500 barrels	100 00
Tobacco peddlers with one horse	15 00
Tobacco peddlers with two horses	25 00
Tobacco peddlers with more than two horses	50 00
Tobacco peddlers travelling on foot, etc.	15 00

Any person, firm, or corporation, who shall engage in or continue to carry on any of the occupations or business named in the foregoing schedule, after the 30th day of April, 1873, without first filing an application upon blank form No. 11 for special tax, and making payment to the Collector of Internal Revenue, and procuring the special tax stamps authorizing them to exercise and carry on such business, will subject themselves to and be caused to pay the fines and penalties prescribed by law for so doing.

It has heretofore been the practice when parties were about commencing business for them to simply make application to the Assessor for special tax and then (before payment is made) open their doors for the transaction of business, and await the call of the Collector to make payment.

This practice must positively be discontinued, and the parties must first procure the special tax stamps prescribed by law for their particular business, and place or keep the same in a conspicuous place in their places of business, as required by law, before exposing or offering for sale any article for which the law requires a special tax to be paid. When a party is in business May 1, or commences during the month of May of any year, the full amount of the tax for one year is required by law to be paid, but where a party commences business at any time subsequent to May 31st, he is only required by law to pay pro rata from the commencement of the month in which he engaged in business to May 1st next ensuing. Any person who engages in or continues to carry on business after April 30, 1873, where a special tax is required by law, and fails to post up, and to keep posted up, the special tax stamp in some conspicuous place in his establishment, will be prosecuted without fail.

The Best North Side Candidate.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

I see that the preliminary canvass has commenced, and that candidates for Assembly are beginning to "come out." So far I have heard of but a few publicly named for Allegheny City, and these few do not comprise the element we want. We want a first-class man this time, and this one—if he can be induced to run—I think is Mr. Hugh McNeill, of the Fourth Ward. In this opinion I am strengthened by the favorable comments I have heard wherever the name has been quietly mentioned within the past few days. Mr. McNeill is now and has been for many years a member of Council, and has made a record there that does him every honor. He may not have been as blatant as some other Councilmen, but he has always been found on the right side, and there is no progressive movement that has not had his sympathy. Few men have quietly wielded a greater influence, and there is no member of Council who is held in higher esteem. Mr. McNeill further is very largely identified with the business interests of Allegheny, and knows how to represent them. He is also a large property owner, and would make an excellent representative on that score. He has, further, been a life-long Republican, one who gave not only his energies and time to the work, but has been equally as liberal with his means. And finally his record in social and business life has demonstrated him to be a man of incorruptible integrity.

If, Messrs. Editors, all these are not elements of strength, I do not know what is needed. I believe Mr. McNeill would rally more votes than any man we have had for several years, and he certainly would make an admirable representative.

WHAT IS VITALITY?

Science has not yet answered this conundrum. The principle of life, in spite of the researches of chemists, doctors and meta-physicians, remains unknown. We know, however, that when the blood is impure, the stomach inert, the bowels irregular, the liver disordered, or the nerves relaxed, this life sustaining principle, whatever it may be, is shorn of its active power, and that the body it animates languishes. We know, too, such of us as are capable of deriving knowledge from authenticated facts, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters correct impurities of the blood, invigorate the stomach, regulate the bowels, tone the liver and brace the nerves, thereby combatting and subduing the leading morbid conditions which tend to shorten life. The average time of human existence might unquestionably be greatly lengthened by judicious stimulation, especially in the decline of life, and this famous preparation is undoubtedly the most wholesome stimulant at present known.

HOMESTEAD LOTS,
Situated on BUTLER ST., Between 50th and 51st Sts., 18th Ward.
GREAT INDUCEMENTS OFFERED.

The owners of this beautiful property have decided to offer the remaining lots at such prices and terms as to place them within the reach of all. These lots are located in the midst of a large and increasing community, and adjacent to the most numerous and largest manufacturing establishments in the city, such as steel works, locomotive works, furnaces, planing mills, bridge works, &c. It is just the place where mechanics and workingmen should buy a home. Fruit and shade trees on nearly every lot. Plenty of good, soft water. Every lot fronts on a 50 foot street. Churches and school houses near by. Property must advance more in this section than in any other part of the city.
